June 6, 2021
Solemnity of Corpus Christi

Office of the Bishop
614 • 224 • 2251

Dear Friends,

Welcome back! Many of you have been coming to Mass for months, some may have only recently returned to in person worship, and for some this may be your first weekend back at Mass. It's such a joyful time that the coronavirus is under control to such a degree that we can safely return to in-person worship.

As we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi and resume the obligation to assist at Mass on Sunday, this weekend is the perfect opportunity to reflect on the sacred nature of what we do in our churches each Sunday and for so many, daily.

This Feast reminds us that we are receiving the Body and Blood of Christ truly and substantially present in the Eucharist under the appearance of bread and wine. When we receive the Eucharist we want to be sure we receive reverently, with the proper disposition. We must remember to confess any mortal sins we're conscious of before receiving and we must remember to fast for one hour before receiving the Eucharist, water and medicine notwithstanding.

When we receive, if we receive in the hand, our hands are clean and are ready to receive the consecrated host. After taking a small step to the side, the host must be consumed in view of the priest or minister distributing Communion, and not consumed back at the pew or walking back to the pew.

The chalice will not be offered to the faithful at this time, unless specific arrangements have been made for someone who is unable to receive even a low-gluten host. While it is a fuller sign of receiving Christ in the Eucharist, our faith has consistently held that whether we receive a small sip of the Precious Blood or even a small fragment of the consecrated host, we are receiving the whole Christ, body, blood, soul and divinity.

We will be invited to show each other the sign of peace. All should feel comfortable physically to show a sign of peace to people of one's household, and some form of non-contact gesture of peace to others near you. Simply speaking the words "Peace be with you" is sufficient. We want to be sure to respect the comfort level of those around us when initiating any kind of physical contact.

The worship we offer God at Mass, and the manner in which we do it as the Body of Christ is given to us as a gift of the Church. This truly is sacred spaced and a sacred time in our week. Let us be refreshed by the Word of God we hear and strengthened by the Word made flesh we consume in the Eucharist. Above all, may Christian charity, which is the heart of Eucharist, guide us in our decisions and actions.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Brennan
Bishop of Columbus

From the Pastor's Desk...

Recently there have been some questions surrounding the transparency of the finances at St. Colman. While we have made the effort to include the most useful information in the special edition of The Lantern every year, it was concluded that the publishing of the full financial statements of the parish would not be useful. This would use lots of paper and few would be interested in examining those details in all of their tedium. This information, however, should not be and is not withheld from the any of parishioners of St. Colman. St. Colman has been and is known for their generous support of the Church and they have a right to know how their money is being used. Financial transparency is a must, and I insist on it as a matter of justice, as well as, merely as sound practice. If you are interested in seeing the full financial reports of St. Colman parish, please, call the parish office and arrange a time to come in and examine them. There is nothing about the financial situation of St. Colman that is hidden, save the confidentiality of employee compensation, which is confidential as a matter of justice and obligation to privacy.

In Christ,

Fr. C. M. Haddad

Confession Information

Now that confessions are being heard in the Confessional, please be mindful of a few things:

- ◆ Please do not sit in the pews closest to the Confessional. Privacy is of utmost importance and we want to guard against anything accidentally being heard. Wait until after confessions are over before sitting in those pews.
- ◆ Form a line down the side aisle if you are waiting to make a confession. If you unable to stand along the wall, sit at the end of the pew beside where you would be standing so that others know you are holding a place in the line.
- ◆ If you are the next in line when it is time for confessions to end, please refrain from going into the confessional to make a confession. Instead, talk with Father after Mass or call the Parish Office to schedule another time for Father to hear your confession. Father needs that time before Mass to prepare.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, don't hesitate to talk directly with Father.

Thank you!

Vacation Bible School

"Vocation" Bible School will be held this year the week of July 11th. Registration forms are available in the back of the church and on the St. Colman website at www.stcolmanwch.org.

Volunteers are also needed!

Adult and high school volunteers are needed to help with the program, too.

Contact Tina in the Parish Office to schedule your sponsorship. One sponsorship per weekend, scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost is $40.00 and payment is due at the time of scheduling. You may also put your intention, preferred date and payment in a marked envelope in the collection basket.

Jubilee of Anniversaries

Jubilee of Anniversaries Celebrates Marriages with Mass on June 27, 2021. Couples celebrating their 25th, 30th, 35th, 40th, 45th, 50th, 55th, 60th (and every year thereafter) anniversaries in 2021 are invited to the annual Jubilee of Anniversaries in honor of their marriages!

Bishop Robert Brennan will celebrate Mass at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 27, at St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church in Powell. The Jubilee Mass will also be livestreamed for couples who prefer to attend virtually, and family members.

All registered couples, whether attending or not, will receive a personalized certificate. Couples who R.S.V.P. by Wednesday, June 16, will be included in the Mass worship aid and The Catholic Times.

Guidelines as We Resume our Weekly Obligations

Welcome back to those of you who are joining us for the first time since the pandemic! It is good to have you with us again. Now that Governor Dewine has lifted all health orders and the CDC has issued new guidelines pertaining to Covid-19, the diocese released updated guidelines as we re-open fully this weekend. In regards to:

Masks

- * Fully Vaccinated Individuals no longer need to wear a mask or physically distance in Mass
- * Non-Fully Vaccinated Individuals should wear a mask that covers your nose and mouth to help protect yourself and others and stay 6ft. apart from others who don't live with you.

Above all, we should be guided by Christian Charity and respect for all those who we interact with, and the choices they make, particularly around the use of masks and social distancing.

Holy Water

- * Holy water is back in the fonts at the doors. The Holy Water container is back in the tower if you want to fill your own bottles as needed.

Sanitizing

- * We will no longer be fogging the church after each Mass as there is support that the virus spread from inanimate objects is minimal.
- * Masks and hand sanitizer will remain available for those who wish to use them.

Live Streaming of Mass

- * We will no longer be live-streaming our Mass here at St. Colman.
- * St. Joseph Cathedral will continue to live-stream the 10:30am Mass. You can view this at <https://www.columbuscatholic.org/live>.

Parish Hall

- * The Parish Office is now open to the public Monday - Thursday, 9:00am - 1:00pm. Closed Fridays.
- * Please follow the CDC guidelines on wearing a mask or not.
- * We are once again renting our facilities to St. Colman parishioners. Contact the Parish Office for details.
- * The Parish Hall will be open during weekend Masses for those who wish to use the restrooms in this building.

Funeral Lunches/Senior Lunches/KofC Gatherings

- * These events may resume. The only consideration is for food services. We should be careful in how these are arranged to protect those going through the line and those who follow them. Prior Orders from the State recommend that food be put on the participants' plates by a server to limit how many individuals touch serving utensils. This would still be recommended where possible.

More to come as we move through the summer. As always, we will keep you informed here in the bulletin.

Real Presence, Real Future reflections: It Is Really Jesus
Dcn. Tim Birie, Knox County Consortium of Catholic Churches

"While they were eating he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.'" At that meal with his disciples, Jesus gave us the source and summit of our faith, the Eucharist. He is truly present in the Eucharist, as He promised. This Real Presence of Jesus brings us as close to Him as we can be while on this earth. We must explain and share this gift of our faith in order to have a Real Future and so that everyone can share in this joy every time we receive the Eucharist.
