So Who Likes Change?

For the things that are 'routine' and familiar, we humans tend to like them to remain the same. They never do, of course, but it's our preference. It has always been a guiding rule here at St. Colman that the music should always be consistent, as consistent as the content of the Mass itself. While the Mass itself remains a constant, on a weekly, yea, daily basis, the music that carries certain parts is permitted to change. This is especially true for the sections of the Mass which are called the 'ordinal', meaning those parts that are always the same: namely, Kyrie (Lord, have mercy), Gloria (Glory to God), Credo (I believe), Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) and Agnus Dei (Lamb of God). At St. Colman we have used a setting since Advent of 2010 for all but the Credo called "Mass in Honor of St. Benedict".. That was when the new English translation of the Mass started being used. This particular setting was chosen as a common setting for the Diocese of Columbus and we have continued to use it. It is musically acceptable and, as a congregation, we sing it well. While we switch the setting for Advent and Lent (to something more stylistically suited to the penitential seasons), we have otherwise stayed with the 'St. Benedict'.

Both Fr. Haddad and I believe that it is time to add to our repertoire. We will continue to use the 'St. Benedict', most likely in the more festive seasons, but beginning the weekend of July 31/August 1, we will be learning a new setting.

The 'Mass in Honor of St. Thomas More' by Fr. Samuel Weber, will be introduced and we will start by using the Sanctus and the Agnus Dei from this setting that weekend. There will be a brief introduction before the Masses that weekend. Later on, once we're comfortable with it, we will add the Gloria. A great deal of searching and thought has gone into this selection. I hope you will find it easy to learn and easy to sing. Its style is very much in keeping with the plainsong (Gregorian chant) that is the standard for use in the Church. It will permit us to place copies in the pew (whereas, if you don't already know the 'St. Benedict' right now, you're out of luck).

I've been Music Director as St. Colman for 16 years and we've changed the Mass setting we use just once in that time. I hope we are able to continue our tradition of full and active participation in the Mass with this new setting.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and continued praise of Almighty God in song!

Director, Liturgical Music

Real Presence, Real Future reflections: Why Bother?
Deacon Jeff Carpenter, St. Bernadette, Lancaster:

We have all felt like the apostles in the gospel today. We see hunger, poverty, sickness, disaster, or other human suffering, but when we look at our resources, we feel we have so little to offer. We think why bother? Our connection to Jesus in the Real Presence gives us the courage to be like the apostles, offering what we can and trusting in the Lord to bring forth fruit. With a strong connection to Jesus through the regular reception of his presence in the eucharist we are always aware that we are working with and for him in all we do.
