Concerts at two churches: Catholic musician and speaker Michael James Mette will be performing music and testimony with his daughters, Gabby (13), Trinity (12), and Charity (10), at Our Lady of Grace in Minot on Monday, April 16, and at St. Ann’s Catholic Church in Hebron, Wednesday, April 18th. It’s a free-will offering concert for all ages celebrating our Catholic faith. Mette describes his music as alternative rock with faith-based lyrics and influenced by artists like Hillsong and Matt Maher. Both concerts are at 7:00 p.m. All are invited. Check with the parish offices for more information, 701-839-6834 in Minot or 701-878-4658 in Hebron.

Celebration of New Life Mass Tuesday, April 17: Come celebrate with expecting and new parents at the Celebration of New Life Mass with Bishop Kagan at 6:30 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit! All are invited, and families are encouraged; parents will receive a blessing. New life is such a gift!

Keynote address at Vocations Jamboree Wednesday, April 18: St. Gianna’s daughter, Dr. Gianna Emanuela Molla, will share her mother’s memory, example, testimony and spirituality with the public at the University of Mary’s annual Vocations Jamboree. Her keynote address, Wednesday, April 18, 7:30 p.m., in the new Founders Hall inside the Lumen Vitae University Center, is free and open to the public. Those interested in attending are encouraged to register at www.umary.edu/vocjam or contact Ed Konieczka at (701) 355-8102 or erkonieczka@umary.edu .

Rare Bible on display at senior care centers: The Heritage Edition of the Saint John’s Bible will be available for public display at St. Gabriel’s Community in Bismarck, St. Benedict’s Health Center in Dickinson and Benedictine Living Center of Garrison in April and May.
