My Dear Parishioners:

The French Dominican priest, Fr. Henri Lacordaire (1802-1861), wrote a beautiful poem about the dignity and beauty of the Catholic priesthood. One of the lines of that poem says that a priest is "a member of every family, yet belongs to none." For the last seven years, you have been my family and now it's time for me to say goodbye and to become part of another parish family. Thank you for the kindness and cooperation that you have shown me as your priest and pastor. My life and my priesthood have been blessed and enriched during these last seven years with you. With God's grace, we have accomplished much good together. I will miss you, but I have the comfort of knowing that even though miles will separate us physically, we will still be united spiritually with each other in the Communion of Saints, most especially through our participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Jesus' redeeming sacrifice for our salvation. I ask your prayers for me in my new assignment at St. Therese, Church of the Little Flower, and for your new and very capable pastor, Fr. Thomas Grafsgaard. If you're ever in Minot, I would enjoy seeing and visiting with you. God bless you!

CALLING ALL ADULT PARISHONERS: Although it seems like it is way too early to begin thinking about being a Religious Education teacher – IT'S NOT! As we move forward to another year of Religious Education, we do so with lots of excitement. This year we will be implementing a new curriculum called Spirit of Truth, check it out at, https://sophiainstituteforteachers.org/spiritoftruth. It is a uniquely engaging, beautiful, and catechist-friendly curriculum where quality over quantity of material covered is emphasized. It would be awesome if we had enough teachers interested that we could have co-teachers where the two of you worked out a schedule as to when you could be available. We have had this scenario in past years with a couple grades and it worked amazingly well. We ask that you begin praying and then prayerfully consider letting your heart and mind guide you to hear God's call and become a Religious Education teacher.

The Knights of Columbus Marion Icon will be on display at St. Martin's July 1 thru July 5. Please consider taking part in adoration on Tuesday, and praying a Rosary dedicated to persecuted Christians around the world.

St. Martin ministry list for June thru September was emailed out last week, please contact the parish office if you did not receive a copy to update your email address.
