My Dear Parishioners:

The French Dominican priest, Fr. Henri Lacordaire (1802-1861), wrote a beautiful poem about the dignity and beauty of the Catholic priesthood. One of the lines of that poem says that a priest is “a member of every family, yet belongs to none.” For the last seven years, you have been my family and now it’s time for me to say goodbye and to become part of another parish family. Thank you for the kindness and cooperation that you have shown me as your priest and pastor. My life and my priesthood have been blessed and enriched during these last seven years with you. With God’s grace, we have accomplished much good together. I will miss you, but I have the comfort of knowing that even though miles will separate us physically, we will still be united spiritually with each other in the Communion of Saints, most especially through our participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Jesus’ redeeming sacrifice for our salvation. I ask your prayers for me in my new assignment at St. Therese, Church of the Little Flower, and for your new and very capable pastor, Fr. Thomas Grafsgaard. If you’re ever in Minot, I would enjoy seeing and visiting with you. God bless you!
