Meet the 2021 St. Joseph Confirmands

Mason James Mellmer is the son of Tracy and Darlene Mellmer. He has three older brothers, Evan, Tyrel, and Spencer. Mason is a baptized member of St. Joseph. His church involvement includes being an altar server, volunteer helper at VBS, and attendance of Steubenville. Mason participates in football, wrestling, baseball, FFA, and art in school; outside of school he enjoys hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, and participating in demolition derbies. He is also involved in the family farming operation. Confirmation has opened Mason's eyes about how important and powerful the Catholic faith is. He asks for prayers to grow closer to God while growing and developing within his Catholic faith.

Garrett Mark Palaniuk is the son of Dennis and Jessie Palaniuk. He has one older brother, Tanner. Garrett was baptized at the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church while his family lived in East Peoria, Illinois; and has since been a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church for 14 years. He attended Steubenville in the past, was an altar server for two years, and has also attended the March for Life in Washington, DC. When Garrett is not in school you can find him at J & M Hardware where he works part-time. Confirmation has helped Garrett grow closer to God and learn about what He has done for him. Garrett asks that we pray for him to grow even closer to God, for a good prayer life, and for help in getting to where he needs to go throughout his life.

Stations of the Cross and Evening Prayer each Friday during Lent at 6:30pm. Please see calendar for schedule.
