Catholic Prayer: Novena Honoring the Body and Blood of Christ

I thank You, Jesus, my Divine Redeemer, for coming upon the earth for our sake, and for instituting the adorable Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist in order to remain with us until the end of the world.

I thank You for hiding beneath the Eucharistic species Your infinite majesty and beauty, which Your Angels delight to behold, so that I might have courage to approach the throne of Your Mercy. I thank You, most loving Jesus, for having made Yourself my food, and for uniting me to Yourself with so much love in this wonderful Sacrament that I may live in You.

I thank You, my Jesus, for giving Yourself to me in this Blessed Sacrament, and so enriching it with the treasures of Your love that You have no greater gift to give me.

I thank You not only for becoming my food but also for offering Yourself as a continual sacrifice to Your Eternal Father for my salvation. I thank You, Divine Priest, for offering Yourself as a Sacrifice daily upon our altars in adoration and homage to the Most Blessed Trinity, and for making amends for our poor and miserable adorations. I thank You for renewing in this daily Sacrifice the actual Sacrifice of the Cross offered on Calvary, in which You satisfy Divine justice for us poor sinners.

I thank You, dear Jesus, for having become the priceless Victim to merit for me the fullness of heavenly favors. Awaken in me such confidence in You that their fullness may descend ever more fruitfully upon my soul. I thank You for offering Yourself in thanksgiving to God for all His benefits, spiritual and temporal, which He has bestowed upon me. In union with Your offering of Yourself to Your Father in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, I ask for this special favor: (Mention your request).

If it be Your holy Will, grant my request. Through You I also hope to receive the grace of perseverance in Your love and faithful service, a holy death, and a happy eternity with You in Heaven. Amen.

Are We Ready for This Prayer?

Yes, I will lift up my heart. And I will give God thanks and praise. I'll stay awake. I'll listen to every word. I'll sing every acclamation and Amen. Thus I will put energy into praying the eucharistic prayer at Mass on Sunday. I'll bring to it every bit of life. I'll remember everything, especially the hard stuff (after all, at the center of this prayer is a body to be broken for us, a covenant made in the blood of Christ).

I will be so attentive that when we've finished the eucharistic prayer with a room-shaking Amen, I'll know just how right and good it is to pray the Our Father together, greet one another with Christ's peace, then enter a procession (not line up, a procession) that is singing its way to the table of the Lord.

And I'll come hungry. By some kind of fasting - from food, from entertainment, from distractions, from anger - I'll come on Sunday knowing in body and soul how hungry I am to hear God's word and hungry to give God thanks and praise and hungry to feast on the body of Christ given for us, the blood of Christ poured out for us.

And I'll never again think that I can do any of this alone. How could I? It is not I who gives God thanks and praise, it is the body of Christ that makes this eucharistic praying. All the baptized people in this room put their lives into this prayer that the ordained priest proclaims. And it goes beyond the room. That's why we remember the church all over the world in our prayers for the bishop and the pope, the living and dead.

Am I ready for this prayer? Are we?
