Pope recalls Word of God Sunday, urges all to read Bible

January 25, 2021
 Vatican News
 By: Devin Watkins

Recalling the celebration of the Sunday of the Word of God, Pope Francis urges all Christians to carry a pocket Bible and to read a few verses every day.

As the Church celebrates the 2nd Sunday of the Word of God, Pope Francis launched an appeal to all the faithful to keep the Sacred Scriptures close at all times and to read them frequently. “One of the greatest gifts of our time is the rediscovery of Sacred Scripture in the life of the Church and the faithful,” he said at the Sunday Angelus address. “Never before as today,” added the Pope, “has the Bible been so accessible to all and in all languages, now even in audiovisual and digital formats.”

Christ and the Scriptures

Pope Francis also recalled a saying of St. Jerome, the great 5th century Biblical scholar and Doctor of the Church: “Whoever ignores the Scriptures ignores Christ.” And, the Pope added, the reverse is also true: “It is Jesus Christ—the Word made flesh and Resurrected—who opens the mind to understand the Scriptures.” He said we come to comprehend the Word of God especially in the liturgy, but also when we pray alone or in groups.

Joy of the Gospel

Pope Francis then thanked and encouraged the many parishes which seek to educate the faithful to listen to the Scriptures. “May we never lose the joy of spreading the Gospel,” he said. The Pope then repeated his frequent invitation for everyone to carry a small book of the Gospels in our pocket or purse. And he urged us to read a least three or four verses of the Bible every day.

FEAST DAY

ST. JOHN BOSCO

31st JANUARY

St. John Bosco 'Don Bosco' (1815-1888) is the patron saint of children, young people and magicians. He was an Italian Roman Catholic priest, educator and writer who—inspired by the spirituality and philosophy of St. Francis de Sales, and the messages from God in his own dreams—founded the Salesians of Don Bosco, dedicated to helping and educating the homeless and abandoned children and young people he found on the streets, and in prison, in Turin, Italy. Don Bosco also founded Salesian missions in South America and published a number of works including his Biographical Memoirs.

Today the Salesians are a worldwide movement continuing his work with 'reason, religion and kindness'.
