LINCOLN COUNTY FAIR

This is Lincoln County Fair Week. Good Luck to all the kids in FFA & 4H.
Good Luck to Michael Kaimann as he chairs the Lincoln County Fair.

Come walk with us in the Lincoln County Fair Parade at 5:00 today.

This is Good Samaritan Sunday

How do we see Jesus in our neighbor?
Have we been a good Samaritan to someone lately?
*When is it that we are most moved with compassion?
Whenever we come across someone engulfed in a suffering that we ourselves have suffered. Perhaps it was this memory that moved the Good Samaritan to approach the victim, refusing to accept that the beaten person on the road was already dead. The commandment to love our neighbor is "something very near to you, already in your hearts" - that is, in the experience of the compassion that others have shown us. Once we have experienced the compassion of Christ Jesus, "the firstborn from the dead," it makes us eager to reach out to the half-dead waiting for us on our path.*

THE ANNOINTING OF THE SICK

Its Foundations in the Economy of Salvation Christ the physician

1503 Christ's compassion toward the sick and his many healings of every kind of infirmity are a resplendent sign that "God has visited his people" and that the Kingdom of God is close at hand. Jesus has the power not only to heal, but also to forgive sins; he has come to heal the whole man, soul and body; he is the physician the sick have need of. His compassion toward all who suffer goes so far that he identifies himself with them: "I was sick and you visited me." His preferential love for the sick has not ceased through the centuries to draw the very special attention of Christians toward all those who suffer in body and soul. It is the source of tireless efforts to comfort them.

1504 Often Jesus asks the sick to believe. He makes use of signs to heal: spittle and the laying on of hands, mud and washing. The sick try to touch him, "for power came forth from him and healed them all." And so in the sacraments Christ continues to "touch" us in order to heal us.

1505 Moved by so much suffering Christ not only allows himself to be touched by the sick, but he makes their miseries his own: "He took our infirmities and bore our diseases." But he did not heal all the sick. His healings were signs of the coming of the Kingdom of God. They announced a more radical healing: the victory over sin and death through his Passover. On the cross Christ took upon himself the whole weight of evil and took away the "sin of the world," of which illness is only a consequence.

BEYOND SUNDAY CAMPAIGN PRAYER

O Lord you have guided and led our Archdiocese of 190 years. Through the example of many who have gone before us, we have received the blessing of faith and a vision of your kingdom.

Through their generous sacrifices we have visible signs of your presence in our beautiful Catholic Community. In a Spirit of grateful stewardship, we ask that you bless our Beyond Sunday Campaign with the same grace and sense of sacrifice that will enable us to pass on to future generations the treasures we have received from past generations.

We place this campaign under your patronage who has guided this faith community as a beacon of hope in a spirit of faith, sacrifice and stewardship. Amen

Beyond Sunday Campaign has already received a pledge of $15,000.

Thank you for your generosity!

STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" Luke 10:37
This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. But did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor, who may be someone you don't know, someone that looks different than you or someone you don't like, without expecting anything in return.
