“Olympics star Kerri Walsh Jennings: ‘I was born to have babies and play volleyball’

Beach volleyball superstar, Kerri Walsh Jennings, has won three Olympic gold medals, and also has three children. In a recent interview, she talked about her family, and how they’ve helped her to reach even farther to accomplish her goals. “My priorities are my faith, my family, and my career,” she said to NBC’s Joe Fryer. “I want to win a fourth gold medal, I would love to have a fourth baby.”...But what would she be doing if she wasn’t a professional volleyball player? “I would be a mommy,” she answered. “My children have taught me so much. I want to be better because I’m their mommy,” she continued. “I want to be their best role model and I want to represent my country well in Rio. Whatever I’m doing, I want to be great.””

PRAYER

II Humble Vigilance of Heart

Facing temptations in prayer

2733 Another temptation, to which presumption opens the gate, is acedia. The spiritual writers understand by this a form of depression due to lax ascetical practice, decreasing vigilance, carelessness of heart. “The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.” The greater the height, the harder the fall. Painful as discouragement is, it is the reverse of presumption. The humble are not surprised by their distress; it leads them to trust more, to hold fast in constancy.

III. Filial Trust

2734 Filial trust is tested- it proves itself - in tribulation. The principal difficulty concerns the prayer of petition, for oneself or for others in intercession. Some even stop praying because they think their petition is not heard. Here two questions should be asked: Why do we think our petition has not been heard? How is our prayer heard, how is it “efficacious”?

STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS

“Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.” Luke 14:13-14
We have a difficult time with the concept of giving without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity we often want something in return—a raffle ticket, a dinner, or a chance to play golf. Yet, as Christian stewards we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven.

The Feast of St. Augustine

August 28 is the feast of St. Augustine, but since it is on Sunday it is not celebrated.

Here are some beautiful words from his Confessions

You are great, O Lord, and greatly to be praised: Great is your power and your wisdom is without measure. And man, so small a part of your creation, wants to praise you: this man, though clothed with mortality and bearing the evidence of sin and the proof that you withstand the proud. Despite everything, man, though but a small part of your creation, wants to praise you. You yourself encourage him to delight in your praise, for you have made us for yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in you.
