Country Store

"Sewn, Grown, Made, Baked, Raised, Canned"

Your talents can be displayed in a way which will help make Sacred Heart's Annual Picnic a great success.

One may have a special knack for baking.
Another may have a love of growing vegetables and fruits.

Your specialty may be making bird houses, bird feeders or other wood working projects.

Many parishioners like to sew, stitch, quilt and do crafts.

Whatever your talents, please consider donating them to the Annual Parish Picnic Country Store!

You will help make Sacred Heart's Annual Picnic and Dinner a great success.

Bring your special donations of things made, baked, grown, sown or canned to the "Picnic" Sunday morn, June 24, 2018!

For more information, please contact Marty Gray at (314) 795-3419.

THE HOLY TRINITY

- 261 The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of Christian life. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- 262 The Incarnation of God's Son reveals that God is the eternal Father and that the Son is consubstantial with the Father, which means that, in the Father and with the Father, the Son is one and the same God.
- 263 The mission of the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in the name of the Son and by the Son "from the Father" reveals that, with them, the Spirit is one and the same God. "With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified"
- 264 "The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father as the first principle and, by the eternal gift of this to the Son, from the communion of both the Father and the Son"
- 265 By the grace of Baptism "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in the obscurity of faith, and after death in eternal light.
- 266 "Now this is the Catholic faith: We worship one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity, without either confusing the persons or dividing the substance; for the person of the Father is one, the son's is another, the Holy Spirit's another; but the Godhead of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is one, their glory equal, their majesty coeternal"
- 267 Inseparable in what they are, the divine persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Stewardship Awareness

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." Romans 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?
