Stewardship Awareness

“...do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.” John 14:27
 Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you.

PICNIC NEWS

The Country Store needs donations for the Picnic -
 Bring them to the back of church or call Marty Gray - 314-795-3419

The Sacred Heart Picnic is only 4 weeks away, June 23.

Next picnic meeting is June 4 at 7:00 pm

Thanks to all who have helped with the Picnic mailings!!

Let's help the Kaimanns and the Klumps and make the 2019 picnic the best ever.

ODDS & ENDS

Call Mary Ann, 573-470-0287, if you can help drive a senior citizen around.

Dear Father Tichacek, Christ's Peace! Thank you for your parish community's generous gift of $1,436 to Kenrick-Glennon Seminary's Christmas Collection. I offer my sincere gratitude to you and your parish for supporting the formation and education of our seminarians as they prepare for a lifetime of loving ministry as priests.
 Easter Blessings, Fr. James Mason, President-Rector

Sacred Heart Parish, please join us in helping make miracles possible by making a donation at Mass during Glennon Sunday weekend, June 1-2 or online at glennon.org. On behalf of our patients and families, may God bless you for providing hope, healing, faith and compassion to every child who walks through the doors at SSM Health Cardinal Glennon.

HOLY SPIRIT

The Father and the Son revealed by the Spirit

243 Before his Passover, Jesus announced the sending of “another Paraclete” (Advocate), the Holy spirit. At work since creation, having previously “spoken through the prophets,” the Spirit will now be with and in the disciples, to teach them and guide them “into all the truth.” The Holy Spirit is thus revealed as another divine person with Jesus and the Father.

244 The eternal origin of the Holy Spirit is revealed in his mission in time. The Spirit is sent to the apostles and to the Church both by the Father in the name of the Son, and by the Son in person, once he had returned to the Father. The sending of the person of the Spirit after Jesus' glorification reveals in its fullness the mystery of the Holy Trinity.

245 The apostolic faith concerning the Spirit was confessed by the second ecumenical council at Constantinople: “We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father.” By this confession, the Church recognizes the Father as “the source and origin of the whole divinity.” But the eternal origin of the Spirit is not unconnected with the Son's origin: “The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity, is God, one and equal with the Father and the son, of the same substance and also of the same nature. . . Yet he is not called the Spirit of the Father alone, . . . but the Spirit of both the Father and the son.” The Creed of the Church from the council of Constantinople confesses: “With the Father and the Son, he is worshipped and glorified.”

246 The Latin tradition of the Creed confesses that the Spirit “proceeds from the Father and the Son.” The council of Florence in 1438 explains: “the Holy Spirit is eternally from Father and Son; He has his nature and subsistence at once from the Father and the Son. He proceeds eternally from both as from one principle and through one spiration. . . And, since the Father has through generation given to the only-begotten Son everything that belongs to the Father, except being Father, the Son has also eternally from the Father, from whom he is eternally born, that the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Son.”

HAPPY MEMORIAL DAY
