Saint Teresa - Tuesday, October 15

Saint Teresa was born at Avila in Spain in 1515. she joined the Carmelite Order, made great progress in the way of perfection and enjoyed mystical revelation. When she reformed the Order, she met with resistance, but she succeeded with undaunted courage. She also wrote books filled with sublime doctrine, the fruit of her own spiritual life. She died at Avila in 1582.

St. Ignatius - Thursday, October 17

St. Ignatius was a successor of St. Peter as bishop of Antioch. Condemned to death by being thrown to wild animals, he was brought to Rome for execution and was martyred there under the Emperor Trajan in 107. On the journey to Rome he wrote seven letters to different churches. In these he discussed Christ, the structure of the Church, and the Christian life in a manner at once wise and learned. At Antioch, this day was observed in his memory as early as the fourth century.

St. Luke - Friday, October 18

St. Luke was born of a pagan family. Converted to the faith, he became a fellow worker of the apostle Paul. From St. Paul's preaching he compiled one of the gospels. He handed down an account of the beginnings of the church in another work, The Acts of the Apostles, which tells of events up to the time of St. Paul's first sojourn in Rome.

The North American Martyrs - Saturday, October 19
Between the years 1642 and 1649 eight members of the Society of Jesus were killed in North America, after fearful torture by members of the Huron and Iroquois tribes. These men had worked hard to bring the natives of that region to the true Faith. St. Isaac Jogues died on October 18, 1647 and St. John de Brebeuf on March 16, 1648

Padre Pio Counsels on Prayer:

"Pray with perseverance, trust, and a serene and calm mind."

"Pray, hope and don't worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer."

Catechism

Prayer of Thanksgiving

2637 Thanksgiving characterizes the prayer of the Church which, in celebrating the Eucharist, reveals and becomes more fully what she is. Indeed, in the work of salvation, Christ sets creation free from sin and death to consecrate it anew and make it return to the Father, for his glory. The thanksgiving of the members of the Body participates in that of their Head.

2638 As in the prayer of petition, every event and need can become an offering of thanksgiving. The letters of St. Paul often begin and end with thanksgiving, and the Lord Jesus is always present in it: "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you"; "Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving."

STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Luke 17:18

Most of us live "easy" lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.
