St. Catherine of Alexandria - Monday, November 25th
According to tradition, Catherine of Alexandria was martyred in the 4th century. Determined to witness to the truth of the Faith, at the age of eighteen Catherine presented herself to the Emperor Magnus Maximus. After fifty pagan philosophers were unable to answer her arguments, Catherine was threatened with torture on a spiked wheel, and finally beheaded. Some 1,100 years later, Catherine was one of the saints who appeared to a young Joan of Arc, urging her to take up arms in the defense of France. In the Middle Ages, Catherine's intercession was frequently sought by unmarried women.

St. Andrew - Saturday, November 30th.
St. Andrew, born at Bethsaida, was a disciple of John the Baptist before he became a follower of Christ, to whom he also brought his brother Peter. With Philip he presented the Gentiles to Christ and, before the miracle in the desert, he pointed out to Christ the boy carrying the loaves and fishes. After Pentecost he preached the Gospel in many lands and was put to death by crucifixion at Achaia.

Christ the King

541 "Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying: repent, and believe in the gospel." To carry out the will of the Father Christ inaugurated the kingdom of heaven on earth." Now the Father's will is "to raise up men to share in his own divine life." he does this by gathering men around his son Jesus Christ. This gathering is the church, "on earth the seed and beginning of that kingdom."

543 Everyone is called to enter the kingdom. First announced to the children of Israel, this messianic kingdom is intended to accept men of all nations. To enter it, one must first accept Jesus' word.

545 Jesus invites sinners to the table of the kingdom: "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners." he invites them to that conversion without which one cannot enter the kingdom, but shows them in word and deed his Father's boundless mercy for them and the vast "joy in heaven over one sinner who repents." the supreme proof of his love will be the sacrifice of his own life "for the forgiveness of sins."

STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS

"...giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light."

Colossians 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or spend most of our time trying to acquire "things". Try putting God first in all things instead. Ask Him how He wants you to use your gifts.
