PARISH NEWS

This is Catholic School's Week.
Thanks to Rachele & all of the Catechists.

The postponed pro-life vigil is this Friday, Jan. 31, 7 pm at the Baptist Church in Troy.

We are looking for co-chairs for the 2020 Picnic on Sunday, June 28.

CATECHISM The Church is Apostolic

- 857 The church is apostolic because she is founded on the apostles, in three ways:
- she was and remains built on “the foundation of the Apostles,” the witnesses chosen and sent on mission by Christ himself,
 - With the help of the Spirit dwelling in her, the Church keeps and hands on the teaching, the “good deposit,” the salutary words she has heard from the apostles;
 - She continues to be taught, sanctified, and guided by the apostles until Christ’s return, through their successors in pastoral office: the college of bishops, “assisted by priests, in union with the successor of Peter, the Church’s supreme pastor”
- 858 Jesus is the Father’s Emissary. From the beginning of his ministry, he “called to him those whom he desired; . . . And he appointed twelve, whom also he named apostles, to be with him, and to be sent out to preach.” From then on, they would also be his “emissaries”. In them, Christ continues his own mission: “As the Father has sent me, even so I send you.” The apostles’ ministry is the continuation of this mission; Jesus said to the Twelve: “he who receives you receives me.”
- 859 Jesus unites them to the mission he received from the Father. As “the Son can do nothing of his own accord, “but receives everything from the Father who sent him, so those whom Jesus sends can do nothing apart from him, from whom they received both the mandate for their mission and the power to carry it out. Christ’s apostles knew that they were called by God as “ministers of a new covenant,” servants of God,” “ambassadors for Christ,” “servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.”

St. Thomas - Tuesday, January 28

This great Dominican teacher lived only 49 years, 1225-1274, but he traveled much; from his birthplace at Aquino in central Italy to Cologne, to Paris, to Rome and to the monastery near Naples where he died. He wrote much. His two Summas should not obscure his other biblical, theological and philosophical writings. Thomas prayed much and dedicated his brilliant talents to investigating the sublime truth of God in the light of faith and the human intellect. On this date his body was transferred to the Dominican Monastery at Toulouse. Canonized in 1323, he is Patron of all Catholic Schools and is titled the “Angelic doctor.”

St. John Bosco - Friday, January 31

The city of Turin, in Piedmont of North Italy, was in the 19th century a growing industrial and political center. There were hundreds of poor, abandoned boys and girls. The strong personality of Don Bosco came to their aid. A born educator, effective organizer, prolific writer, he trusted in God and accomplished wonders. He founded the Salesians, orders of men and women caring for the young. The “Apostle to Youth” died in 1888 and was canonized a saint on Easter of 1934.

Stewardship Awareness

“He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him.” Matthew 4:22

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. Everything from our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.
