Stewardship Alive

"Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?" Romans 11:35

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give the Lord anything - God already owns it all. God made everything. All we can do is return a portion of God's many gifts back to Him. Sincere gratitude for our gifts opens our hearts to joyful generosity! Through your generous sharing, you just may be the answer to someone's prayer.

PARISH
SEARCHING FOR HELP!

We are searching for more volunteers to our PSR teaching team!

This would be perfect for a parent or grandparent (Dads, too) who has children attending classes. You are hanging around town anyway! A couple of dedicated parents could even form a teaching team, if necessary.

No formal teaching experience required just the desire to share your Catholic faith with the youngsters of our parish. Classes are held in the parish hall classrooms on Sunday mornings from 9:00 - 10:15 am. We are scheduled to begin Sept. 13, 2020

A simple background check and completion of Protecting God's Children seminar are required at no cost to you.

Please prayerfully consider this vocation. Contact Father 573-898-2202 or Rachele Presley 314-703-6055 or rpresley4@aol.com

St. Bartholomew - Monday, August 24

St. Bartholomew was born at Cana. He was brought to Jesus by the apostle Philip. After the ascension of the Lord, he is said to have preached the Gospel in India where he was rewarded with the crown of martyrdom.

St. Louis - Tuesday, August 25

Our patron of the Archdiocese

St. Louis, our primary patron was born in 1214 and became king of France when he was only twenty-two years old. He married and became the father of eleven children who received from him careful instruction for a Christian life. He excelled in penance and prayer and in his love for the poor. While ruling his kingdom he had regard not only for peace among peoples and for the temporal good of his subjects, but also for their spiritual welfare. He undertook the Crusades to recover the tomb of Christ and died near Carthage in 1270.

St. Monica - Thursday, August 27

St. Monica was born of a Christian family at Tagaste in Africa in 331. While still a young maiden she was married to Patricius. They had children, among whom was Augustine. She poured forth many tears and prayers to God for his conversion. A model of the virtuous mother, she nourished the faith by her prayers and witnessed to it by her deeds. She died at Ostia in 387.

St. Augustine - Friday, August 28

St. Augustine was born at Tagaste in Africa in 354. He was unsettled and restlessly searched for the truth until he was converted to the Faith at Milan and baptized by Ambrose. Returning to his homeland, he embraced an ascetic life and subsequently was elected bishop of Hippo. For thirty-four years he guided the flock, instructing it with sermons and many writings. He died in 430.

PAPAL AUTHORITY

880 When Christ instituted the Twelve, "he constituted them in the form of a college or permanent assembly, at the head of which he placed Peter, chosen from among them." Just as "by the Lord's institution, St. Peter and the rest of the apostles constitute a single apostolic college, so in like fashion the Roman Pontiff, Peter's successor, and the bishops, the successors of the apostles, are related with and united to one another.

881 The Lord made Simon alone, whom he named Peter, the "rock" of his Church. He gave him the keys of his Church and instituted him shepherd of the whole flock. "The office of binding and loosing which was given to Peter was also assigned to the college of apostles united to its head." This pastoral office of Peter and the other apostles belongs to the Church's very foundation and is continued by the bishops under the primacy of the Pope.

882 The Pope, Bishop of Rome and Peter's successor, "is the perpetual and visible source and foundation of the unity both of the bishops and of the whole company of the faithful." For the Roman Pontiff, by reason of his office as Vicar of Christ, and as pastor of the entire Church has full, supreme, and universal power over the whole church, a power which he can always exercise unhindered."

Monthly Outdoor Mass

Wednesday, August 26th, 7 pm at Our Lady Queen of Peace Shrine in O'Fallon. Fr. Alex Nord will be our celebrant. Rosary and Chaplet after Mass. The next Mass is on September 2nd at 7 pm with Fr. Mark Whitmann. Please bring a lawn chair for distancing. Please call Ruth at 636-233-1082 with any questions.

Beheading of John the Baptist - Saturday, Aug. 29

St. John the Baptist was the forerunner of the Messiah both in life and in death. He leaped in the womb and later preached the repentance that prepared the way for Christ. Then, by dying for the truth, he prepared the way for Christ. Then, by dying for the truth, he prepared the way for the Lord's Passion. John the Baptist was, through and through, a "righteous and holy man," and the Gospel today reveals that Herod, even while being rebuked, "liked to listen to him." This can only be accounted for by the Baptist's great love. All of us find in John the Baptist an inspiration to live with courageous love.
