STEWARDSHIP AWARENESS

“Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities.” Matthew 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

KNIGHT'S NEWS

The Knights of Columbus meet Wed., Nov. 18 at 7:00 pm

The Sacred Heart Knights of Columbus - Elsberry will again participate in the “No Hunger Holiday”. This year, we may serve as many as 500 families in Lincoln County! If it is possible for you, please dig into your “Horn of Plenty” and provide a frozen turkey and/or a monetary donation to “No Hunger Holiday”. Frozen turkeys will be collected before and after Mass on Nov. 15 & Nov. 22. Turkey crates will be provided. You may make a monetary donation at any time up to Nov. 22. Please mark a plain envelope “No Hunger Holiday” and put your cash or check in the collection basket at Mass. Thank You!

THE PARTICULAR JUDGMENT

1021 Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ in his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. The parable of the poor man Lazarus and the words of Christ on the cross to the good thief, as well as other New Testament texts speak of a final destiny of the soul—a destiny which can be different for some and for others.

1022 Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven—through a purification or immediately, - or immediate and everlasting damnation.

At the evening of life, we shall be judged on our love.

THE LAST JUDGMENT

1038 The resurrection of all the dead, “of both the just and the unjust,” will precede the Last Judgment. This will be “the hour when all who are in the tombs will hear the Son of man’s voice and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.” Then Christ will come in his glory, and all the angels with him. . . . Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left. . . . And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

St. Elizabeth of Hungary - Tues., November 17

On Hungarian royal birth, Elizabeth grew up at the court of Thuringia, in Germany, where she married the kindly Ludwig when she was but fourteen. Her piety and preference for the poor drew the ire of the courtiers, but Elizabeth’s desire to follow Christ did not waver. After Ludwig’s unexpected death in 1227, Elizabeth modeled her life on that of St. Francis of Assisi. She founded a hospital at Marburg, where she personally tended the sick and the dying. When her spiritual director questioned her, she told him that she “received from the poor special grace and humility. Elizabeth died in 1231. She was twenty-four.

St. Rose Philippine Duchesne - Wed., November 18

Born in Grenoble, France, Rose entered the Sisters of the Visitation at eighteen, but the French Revolution cut short her novitiate. Eleven years passed before she was able to join the Society of the Sacred Heart at Amiens. At the age of forty-nine, she made the arduous journey to St. Charles, MO, where the first house of the order was an unheated hut. Schools for girls were established despite a dearth of funds. Rose’s missionary labors on the frontier were capped with a decade of infirmity—and almost continual prayer. A contemporary said: “She was the St. Francis of Assisi of the Society. Everything in and about her was stamped with the seal of a crucified life.”

The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary - Sat., November 21.

“O Virgin Mother of God,” the Byzantine liturgy sings, “you are the subject of the preaching of the prophets and the glory of the apostles. You are the pride of the martyrs and the cause of the renewal of the entire human race, for through you we have been reconciled with God. Wherefore we honor your entrance into the temple of the Lord, repeating to you the salutation of the angel, for we are saved through your intercession, O most honorable one!” “the heavens opened up,” St. Francis de Sales said, and the whole choir of angels “leaned over the balustrades of the heavenly Jerusalem to see and admire this darling child.” Let us both seek Mary’s intercession and join her in offering ourselves to the Lord!

The Special Intentions of Pope Francis for November

Dear Jesus,

We pray that the progress of robotics, artificial intelligence, and all technological advancements will always serve humanity.
