Baptism of the Lord

Through our baptism, we are called to assist Christ in building the Kingdom.

Three of the four Gospels recall the Baptism of the Lord, each one in its own way. The version we heard today, from Matthew, is unique in recalling that when Jesus came to the Jordan, John the Baptist at first tried to prevent him, saying that he was the one who needed to be baptized by Jesus. But Jesus replies, “Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.”

Here, Matthew is keen to emphasize that Jesus is the fulfillment of the promises made to Israel – as found in the first reading – and the one whose sandals John is unfit to carry (Cf., Matthew 3:11). John acquiesced to Jesus’ request, and upon coming up from the water, Jesus is revealed as my beloved Son through a voice from heaven, while the Spirit descends upon him in the form of a dove.

As we hear this Gospel proclaimed, we note this revelation/divine action occurs after Jesus comes up from the waters of the Jordan. We, too, have emerged from the waters of baptism, and been anointed with the same Spirit. The words of the Father are words meant for us, too, for we also are God’s beloved.

If anything, this feast has as much to say about us as it does about Jesus and his identity. Yes, by going down into the waters of the Jordan, Jesus demonstrates his solidarity with our broken world, but we know that he was without sin and so his baptism is different from ours. Unlike Christ who embodied perfection, we have to choose whether or not to live up to that baptismal identity, and to continue his divine work in our world today.

We who gather here have made this choice, it seems. We may not do it perfectly, but by our profession of faith and openness to the grace available at this Mass we are, at the very least, committed to trying our best. May God bless us in our efforts, and may the Eucharist continue to transform us for the sake of the world.

For an easier more consistent way of supporting Christ the King, please consider using Faith Direct at www.faithdirect.net. Our parish code is NJ658.

Second Collection Next Weekend

Next weekend is our annual second collection for Retired Religious. Many senior Catholic sisters, brothers and religious order priests served for little or no pay. Today, religious communities often do not have enough savings to meet retirement needs. Your gift helps provide medications, nursing care, and more for tens of thousands of elderly religious. It also helps ensure younger members can continue the good works of their elders. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Gift Card Scam

Please be alert to these thieves. A number of priests throughout the country have found that their parishioners are receiving emails or text messages claiming to be from their pastor and asking parishioners to purchase gift cards to help the poor. This is a fraud. Please do not respond to any appeal you receive which asks you to purchase gift cards to help the poor and uses the name of the parish or diocese.

The Giving Tree

THANK YOU!!!

Our Giving Tree Project this year was another HUGE success! Your generosity produced incredible results:

Passaic Neighborhood, Catholic Charities, Birth Haven, Eva's Village, Family Promise and Morris County Housing Authority all received over and above what they asked for, and they were amazed at the response.

We collected more than 420 gifts! We added extra tags because the response was so amazing.

139 gift cards were donated totaling close to $7,000.
WOW!

The inmates at the Morris County Correctional Facility received a "car-full" of donations - over 600 pairs of socks, almost 300 t-shirts, more than 150 briefs, and the 100s of toiletries - soap, shampoo, and deodorant - filled 20 heavy duty grocery bags to the breaking point.
So impressive!

Thank you, too, for all those who assisted with moving and storing the gifts as they arrived. Special thanks to Colleen Roberts for the gift tags and coordination with Sue Clifford in the office, as well as Cathy & Tom Leahy, Janice & Darrin Sokol and Amy Castronovo and their families for sorting and packing it all up for pickup.

On behalf of the organizations above, we thank each and every one of you for your generous spirit which made Christmas so happy for hundreds, if not thousands, of people. The Christ the King staff prays that God continues to bless and reward you in the New Year!
