Fully Initiated RCIA Candidates 2020

Church of Christ the King

Bill William Willshaw Jr.

I grew up in Morristown and was Baptized in Christ the King parish. About 10 years ago I had to move back to Morristown. I felt like I needed something and watched my fiancé go off to Church every Sunday. Sometimes I would ask questions and she would share her experiences. When we got engaged, I thought I would join her at Mass (She was shocked but welcomed me anyway). After attending Mass a few times, I felt it was right and. I asked what I would have to do to receive Communion. She told me I would have to join the RCIA. I responded, "Sign me up". Even through Covid, I would set up the computer to join Mass every weekend. I didn't want to miss it. I enjoyed learning about faith and the classes with everyone sharing experiences and thoughts about religion and the sacraments. I even felt that I heard my story being shared by Paul as he shared his journey of faith. I was very excited to have finally been initiated into the Catholic Faith two weeks ago and I knew it is exactly what I wanted to do to start off my marriage to Angela.

Annie Anne Crighton

My family and I moved to NJ about 2 years ago. I currently work for Morris County Golf Club and enjoy it immensely. I grew up in a nondenominational church and was raised on faith. Upon meeting my in-laws, we became more involved in the Catholic Church. I decided to fully become a member of Christ the king and the catholic faith because of our relationship with god and with how we wanted to raise our family.

Married January 10, 2020 to Monica Daras

Just recently turned the big 4-0

Born and raised on a dairy farm in Asbury, NJ but has since become a crop farming operation with corn and soybeans. (hence my confirmation name of Isadore)

The farm has been in my family since 1896 and I will be taking control of it from my father in 2021.

Just got a chocolate lab puppy to add to our family named Kylo.

We've talked about this, but the reason for me becoming Catholic is family. I married into a great Catholic family. I was never baptized, so it was important to me to do that. While also being unified in faith with Monica as we look to start our family.
