Dear friends,

This coronavirus pandemic has impacted the way we use to come together as a family and worship together. Although at this time we have been forced to stay separate physically but spiritually we continue to stay strong and more connected to each other at the level of the parish and our spirits well-grounded in prayer.

Apart from celebrating Holy Mass together on Sunday until March 15 this year, we also shared numerous information in the parish bulletin every week and the Catholic Sentinel twice a month. You will continue to receive such parish information on our parish web-page. Always try to check the parish web-page to be aware of what is going on in the parish.

With the stay at home order, you will not be able to pick up a printed copy of the Catholic Sentinel from the parish. In the meantime, be sure to check out the latest issues of the Catholic Sentinel in a new, electronic format: www.MySentinelNow.org. Nice work, Sentinel team. Thank you!

Holy Week and Easter

Holy Week is almost upon us, with Palm Sunday this weekend. It will be a Holy Week different than any other we have experienced as a Church. Let us keep each other in prayer. Unfortunately this year, we will not have a chance to gather and celebrate Holy Week and Easter together in our Home Parish and neither will we have a recorded or livestream Mass. However, here's the Holy Week schedule of LIVE services at the Cathedral that will be celebrated by Archbishop Alexander Sample.

- Palm Sunday, April 5 at 11:00 AM

- Holy Saturday Easter Vigil, April 11 at 8:30 PM

United in faith, love and hope, let us stay together by praying together and for each other.

Fr. Paulinus
