HELPING HANDS – meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM in the rectory meeting room. Please consider joining to support our parish. Contact Terry Westdyke at 845-258-8051 for further information.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION – Wednesday evenings at 7:00pm in the Rectory Meeting Room. Weekly reading & reflection of the Sunday Scriptures – fellowship time & refreshments follow. Call Carol at 973-875-4521.

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP – The next book selection for November/December will be Jesus, A Pilgrimage by Fr. James Martin. The book is a wonderful resource written on the life of Jesus as Fr. Martin parallels the “Jesus of History” to the “Christ of Faith.” The group will not meet in November – please purchase your own copy of the book. Call Carol for further information – 862-266-6626.

ST. MONICA'S LEISURE GROUP - Each month we enjoy lunch, good company and delicious desserts made by our members. We meet at 12:00 noon in the church hall on the first Wednesday of the month, unless otherwise noted. Dues are $10 a year. New members are welcome. For further information please contact Grace Casalino at 973-702-8569. November 2 – Halloween Party; December 8(Thursday) –Christmas Party at Lampost Rest.

FOR THE NEEDY.....clean and gently used Winter coats and clothes, sizes: toddler thru adult. Please leave in the baskets in the Church Hall October 30 thru November 13th. Thanks for sharing! Joan Thomas

The following people whose funerals were celebrated here at St. Monica's since November 1, 2015 were remembered in our Annual All Soul's Candle-lighting ceremony last weekend at the 10:00am Mass – please keep them and their family members/friends in your prayers:

Ronald Bobiak	Yolanda Casta
John Collins	Violet Grabowski
Rita Gatlin	Walter Greene, Jr.
Robert Hahn	Peter Horvath
Jeanette Loughery	Helen Novak
Barbara Restelli	Herbert Sandford

Are you new to our parish? If so – welcome!!!
Do you still need to register?

If you are attending Mass and using our blue “blank” visitor envelopes and wish to receive our weekly envelopes in the mail, please register with us! There are many new faces at Mass each weekend – if you wish to become a registered member and put on our parish mailing list, there are blank registration forms on the table near the Church Hall exit (large white envelopes) which can be mailed back to the Rectory office (there is another envelope enclosed for this purpose – it couldn't be any easier!

ST. MONICA'S TRICKY TRAY is November 11th – plan to join us!!!

Please plan to join us on Friday, November 11th at 6:30 pm at Wallkill Valley High School for an evening of good fun, good friends, delicious refreshments and great trays. If you will be helping to deliver trays on Friday, Nov. 11th, please meet at the Rectory Meeting Room between 1:30 and 2:00 p.m. If you will be helping set up at the High School, please arrive around 3:15 p.m. All other volunteers please be at the school no later than 5:30 and purchase your tickets ASAP thereafter. If you are bringing a baked good, please bring them to Wallkill after 3:00 p.m. Your help and support towards this important event is greatly appreciated. Thank you. Kathy D.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“May the Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.”

How many greeting cards we have sent, how many more have we received. All have some kind of a wish, a message of comfort and sorrow when sickness or death occurs, or congratulations on a birth, birthday or graduation. The card means a lot, and sometimes the message is overlooked. As always we say ‘it’s the thought that counts.’

Paul’s message to his friends contains so much, we might glide past it and miss the point of the sacred scriptures. He reminds us we are loved by God, our Father, and Jesus our Brother, who offer us encouragement and hope through grace, God’s very life. The fruit of that love is found in the gift of encouragement and the strength that comes from His grace, reflected in the good we say and do. Wow! In the ‘Joy of Love’ Pope Francis inspires us to live that grace, first in our family. Where it is absent, introduce it. Where it is real celebrate it and strengthen it. Where we know it is needed bring it to others.

JOIN A PILGRIMAGE!!!!!!

*Please consider joining the Book Discussion Group in reading
Jesus, A Pilgrimage by Fr. James Martin, SJ.*

“Having travelled to the Holy Land with our parish, I remember feeling overwhelmed by just being there in that special place, walking the roads that Jesus walked and welling up in tears multiple times. I would not hesitate to travel there again – for anyone who may wish to make a spiritual pilgrimage instead, please consider reading this book along with us!” Carol Bezak, MA, Pastoral Associate

“This book isn’t about a pilgrimage. It is a pilgrimage. I didn’t want the pilgrimage to end.”...Dr. Scott Hahn, author of Understanding the Scriptures

“Part travel guide, part spiritual reflection, and part scripture study and altogether delightful.” ...Cardinal Timothy Dolan

James Martin, SJ, gifted storyteller, editor at large of America magazine, popular media commentator, and New York Times bestselling author of The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything, brings the Gospels to life in Jesus: A Pilgrimage, and invites believers and seekers alike to experience Jesus through Scripture, prayer and travel. Combining the fascinating insights of historical Jesus studies with profound spiritual insights about the Christ of faith, Father Martin recreates the world of first-century Galilee and Judea to usher you into Jesus's life and times and show readers how Jesus speaks to us today. Martin also brings together the most up-to-date Scripture scholarship, wise spiritual reflections, and lighthearted stories about traveling through the Holy Land with a fellow (and funny) Jesuit, visiting important sites in the life of Jesus of Nazareth.

Gospel Today

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time | Luke 20:27-38

Of the Resurrection Jesus says, "They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise." Luke 20: 36

©2016 Bon Venture Services, LLC

"God is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to Him all are alive."

Draw leaves and apples to show how the tree will look when it wakes up next spring.

LUKE 20: 38

From the Apostles Creed

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen

Winter is coming - some parts of God's creation are going to sleep - to rest. This tree no longer looks alive but it really is! Our spirits are alive within us, even when we sleep. Our spirits, children of God, shall live forever.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

A king tortured a Jewish family, and tried to make them violate the laws. They all refused to give in and violate the laws. All of the family members told the king they would rather die at his hands than surrender their hope of being resurrected by God.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5

Paul prays that the Thessalonians will be strengthened by God. He also asks them to pray that God's word will continue to spread, despite the persecution of Christians that was occurring at that time.

Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

Jesus encountered some Sadducees who did not believe in resurrection. Jesus refuted them by quoting Moses, who called the Lord the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Jesus then said. "God is not the God of the dead but of the living. All are alive for him."
