Mass cards help the ADCCW raise funds for seminarians

The Austin Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (ADCCW) has a long history of supporting women in the diocese. But it also has a history of supporting seminarians who are studying to be diocesan priests. In 1948, the ADCCW created the Clerical Endowment Fund to help pay for the education of seminarians. To date, the CEF has provided more than $4.5 million toward the education of future priests. CEF Mass cards are sold in parishes throughout the diocese. The spiritual benefits of each Mass card enrollment include Masses offered monthly by the bishop and the CEF director, and the recipient of the Mass card is remembered in the prayers of the seminarians and the Carmelite sisters at the Our Lady of Grace Monastery in Christoval. The CEF Mass cards make good gifts for birthdays, weddings, anniversaries, baptisms, First Holy Communion, confirmations and Graduations, Mother's Day, Father's Day and other special occasions. The Mass cards may be purchased for $2 or $5 (individuals), $25 (perpetual), $50 for a family or $100 for a group. This year, during the Rural Life Mass on July 14, the CEF presented Bishop Joe Vásquez with a check for $167,138.69 for the education of the seminarians.

The Peter's Pence Collection will be taken up next week at each Mass. This is a worldwide collection that supports the activities of the Holy See through which Pope Francis governs the Church and exercises his charitable works. With roots in the early Church, through the Middle Ages and down to today, Peter's Pence is a sign of unity with the Pope and a support source for the activities of the Holy See, as well as for the Holy Father's charitable relief efforts around the world. When used for charitable outreach, funds from this collection help those most in need. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a sign of mercy.

For more information, visit <http://www.peterspence.va/en.html>.

St. Francis of Assisi will be manning the Franklin Food Pantry on October 10th from 8:30AM - 12:30 PM. There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex for those who'd wish to volunteer. For questions contact Stephen Blair at 979-255-9775 or Ron Zajac at 979-229-3687
