St Michael's Tuesday Newsletter March 5th, 2019

Dear Parents,

Lenten Season

Ash Wednesday is the opening of the Lenten season. Again this year, our students will be celebrating Ash Wednesday at the 9 am parish liturgy. Some of the students will serve as lectors, gift bearers, and altar servers. They are becoming wonderful young liturgical leaders.

Lent is marked by a special time of prayer and preparation to celebrate Easter. Christians use this time for introspection, self-examination and reconciliation. During these days of Lent, St. Michael School teachers and staff have several special activities planned following an all school theme: "40 Day Journey– Fasting, Praying and Giving". It is our hope that you will support these activities at home as the children prepare their own Lenten Journey.

2019-2020 School Calendar

We are in the process of completing the school calendar for the 2019-2020 School Year. The final version will be sent home mid-March.

Below are some key dates:

- First Day of school– September 3rd
- Christmas Break– December 23rd-January 3rd
- Mid Winter Break– February 17th– February 19th
- Easter Break– April 13th-April 17th
- Last Day of school– June 12th

Congratulations to Michael Darling who represented St. Michael School at the Regional King-Snohomish County Spelling Bee last Saturday, March 2. He went three rounds with over 100 spellers.

Peace,

Karen Matthews, Principal
