St Michael's Tuesday Newsletter June 4th, 2019

Dear Parents,

All are invited to our eighth grade class Graduation and Baccalaureate, Friday June 7th at 9am. We are very proud of the accomplishments of our seven graduates: Chase Akins, Matthew Anderson, Giovanni Daza, Ariana Farias-Villalobos, Fatima Robles-Lopez and Aidan Tarasewicz. Following graduation the graduates will display stepping stones in the Peace Garden. Afterwards there will be a small assembly in the Large hall where each class presents a gift to the graduates. Following the assembly, the 7th grade parents will host a brunch for the graduates' family and friends.

Field Day

It appears that we will be blest with great weather for our annual Field Day, Wednesday, June 12th. A flier with Field Day team's color assignments is attached. Tee shirts with just a portion of the team's color are fine. We are indebted to Hilary Melander, coordinator of the event and the many parent volunteers who are managing the games. Field day is always one of their fondest memories of school. The children look forward to the day!

Awards Assembly and Prayer Service

On the last day of school, June 14^h at 11:15 am, the students will gather in the church for an award assembly and final prayer service. Parents are welcome to come. School is dismissed at noon for summer break.

Volunteers still needed:

Field day– Wednesday, June 12th (run games, set up, clean up and lunch)

Please call the school office at 360-568-0821 or email Mrs. Chhin at schooladmin@smpschoo.org if you would like to help with any of these upcoming events. This is a great opportunity to get your volunteers hours completed by the end of the school year.

Peace,
Karen Matthews
