ALL SAINTS' DAY

Merciful God,
We pray for those who have died. Ease their transition from this world and into Eternal Life.

May they find light
that guides their passage into your warm embrace.

And when the time
comes for our dying,
may the souls of those who have departed sing us into eternity with the music of blessing
and hope.

With faith in your
abounding grace
we pray.

Amen

A letter to Parishioners from our newly appointed CE Director for grades 1 through 8 and Pastoral Associate, Donna McIntosh.

WE ARE VERY HAPPY TO WELCOME DONNA

Hello, Parishioners of St. Anne!

I am very excited to join the staff and to get to meet all of you over the coming months. I would like to tell you a little bit about myself. I'm married to a great guy named Wayne. We are married almost 37 years and live in Ashland. We have two wonderful adult sons, Scotlund and Jaymeson. I grew up in Waltham, attended Regis College as an undergrad and earned a Master of Education in Religious Education and Pastoral Ministry at Boston College. I volunteered as a catechist while in high school so of course when it was time for our boys to attend religious education at St. Cecilia's in Ashland I taught both and a classroom of their peers from Grade 1 to 10. Working as a Youth Minister for a time at St. Cecilia's, I also directed the program at St. Linus in Natick for the past 10 years. I am certified as Director of Religious Education and Pastoral Associate for the Archdiocese of Boston and I feel very blessed to be a part of this new and exciting opportunity. My hope for this ministry is to continue to welcome, engage and support parents, catechists, and most of all the children. Adding to the faith they have learned at home, igniting a flame of passion in the children for our faith as well as a close prayerful relationship with Christ, a sense of community and ownership as the youngest parish members of St. Anne and a love for helping others as Jesus taught us, mixing all this with a little bit of fun would be one of my greatest wishes.

Donna McIntosh

Reflections on today's Gospel:

On this solemnity of All Saints, let us turn to the saints' reflections upon Christ's beatitudes. Blessed are...

... the poor in spirit: "Not even God can put anything in a heart that is already full" --Blessed Teresa of Calcutta.

... they who mourn: "They who weep for their own sins are blessed" --St. Thomas Aquinas.

... the meek: "There is nothing as strong as true meekness; there is nothing as gentle as true strength" --St. Francis de Sales.

... they who hunger and thirst for righteousness: "First of all, we must be just towards God. Let this fact be firmly impressed in our hearts, so that it shows in our behavior, for it is the touchstone of the true 'hunger and thirst for justice'" --St. Josemar?a Escriv?.

... the merciful: "If a soul does not exercise mercy in one way or another, it will not obtain [Christ's] mercy on the Day of Judgment" --St. Faustina Kowalska.

... the clean of heart: "The pure soul is a beautiful rose, and the Three Divine Persons descend from Heaven to inhale its fragrance" --St. John Vianney.

... the peacemakers: "Peace is not just the absence of war ... Like a cathedral, peace must be constructed patiently and with unshakable faith" --St. John Paul II.

... they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness: "This is the teaching of Jesus Christ in the Gospel. How, then, can it be said, that those believe in the Gospel who say: 'Blessed are those who have money; blessed are those who suffer nothing ... pitiable is the man that suffers persecution and ill-treatment from others'? ... Either they do not believe the Gospel, or ... they believe only a part of it" --St. Alphonsus Liguori. liturgical Publications Inc.
