THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

CATECHISTS NEEDED AT ALL GRADE LEVELS FOR THE FALL

Saint Anne teaching her daughter, Mary

Are you willing to help our children be all they can be? As religious education classes finish up this week and with the summer months quickly approaching, it's time for us to begin recruiting catechists for September classes. Please take some time to discern God's call to minister to our children. Please consider the following top ten reasons to become a catechist written by long time catechist and Loyola Press' National Consultant for Faith Formation, Joe Paprocki, DMin.

1. You will grow in your own faith, learn the teachings of the Church, and deepen your relationship with Jesus.
2. Your Baptism calls you to share in Jesus' ministry.
3. Children, teens, and adults in today's world, more than ever, need to hear the

Good News of Jesus.

4. Children, teens, and adults in today's world, more than ever, need to encounter good role models of faith.
5. You have much to share with those you'll teach, and you'll have opportunities to share faith with other catechists.
6. Today's catechetical textbooks/resources offer outstanding support.
7. You'll be challenged, you'll have fun, and you'll make new friends.
8. You'll be helping people deepen their relationship with Jesus. (You'll be evangelizing!)
9. You'll be handing on a 2000-year-old Tradition that changes lives.
10. It's our job: Jesus sent us to "go and teach all nations."

PARISH LIFE

FROM DEACON PAUL'S DESK:

The parish would like to extend our most sincere gratitude to all who helped arrange and implement Father Conrad's Retirement Appreciation dinner. We especially would like to thank Julie and Rich Schnetke for donating the delicious dinner from their restaurant, The Villa in Wayland, Kim Galbraith and the members of the hospitality committee for decorating and serving, and for all who brought items to share. So many people helped out to make it a wonderful evening.

Thank you.....Deacon Paul
