Pope Francis greets Pilgrims in St. Peter's Square during his May 31, 2017 General Audience.

Vatican City, May 31, 2017 ~ Pope Francis said the Holy Spirit has the power to fill us with the hope of Christ, in turn making us Christians vessels that bring hope to others, rather than bitterness or desperation. “The Holy spirit makes us not only able to hope, but also to be hope, that we too are, like him and thanks to him—the “paraclete” - consolers and defenders of our brothers, sowers of hope,”... “A Christian can sow bitterness, can sow perplexity, and this is not Christian,” he said, adding: “whoever does this is not a good Christian. Sow hope: sow the oil of hope, sow the fragrance of hope, and not the vinegar of bitterness and hopelessness.”

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES FOR 2017-2018:

AS WE PREPARE THE ST. ANNE WEBSITE TO ACCEPT REGISTRATIONS FOR THE 2017-2018 SCHOOL YEAR PLEASE REMEMBER THAT CATECHISTS ARE NEEDED AT ALL GRADE LEVELS FOR THE FALL:

REASONS TO CONSIDER SERVING AS A CATECHIST (Adapted from A Catechist Journey) A Catholic Religious Education Blogging Community

I love sharing the good news of Jesus Christ and his Church!

When you see a child in high school serving as a hospitality minister, Lector or Eucharistic Minister that you taught in 2nd grade, there is nothing that beats that!

The longer I teach, the more I learn.

It is amazing when you see the “light bulb” go off when your students get the point you are trying to make about the immenseness of God’s love for us.

It’s a wonderful way to get involved in your parish and community.

I realized a couple of years ago that my one hour of teaching once a week may be the only exposure many of these children have to Christ and what his life meant to us.

Being a Catechist enables us to spread the word of God to a generation of youth who will take these life lessons with them to adulthood and beyond.

The love and curiosity I have for Christ is what brings me back each year to teach religious education as a catechist.

I am a catechist because I want children to know they are loved by God and God never gives up on them.

Please contact Donna or Karla if you have and questions.

Pentecost Sunday

Reflections on the Gospel ~ john 20:19-23

“Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’” Then, he said it again. And then, “he breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit.’” Jesus brings peace, and he brings the Holy Spirit. Peace, in fact, is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Today, on this feast of Pentecost, we remember the dramatic outpouring of the Holy Spirit that came upon those first apostles and the peace that came along with it. But we do more than remember. We also celebrate the presence of this same Spirit in our midst.

Through the sacrament of baptism, every Christian receives the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit in his or her soul. Thus, the gift of peace is already ours! The question is whether or not we have really begun to appreciate and utilize this most precious gift. Like the apostles who had locked themselves up “for fear of the Jews,” we too are capable of imprisoning ourselves in our own anxieties. We fret and worry about the future, about our sufferings or our disappointments, and too often let these concerns stifle the true peace that Jesus offers us.

But the Church today urges us to rejoice and to step out in faith like the apostles who left their fears behind them. Peace not only alleviates our fears, it also frees us to live our faith to the fullest, to have the courage to take risks, and to leave our comfort zone for the sake of the Gospel. This is what we are called and, not only that, empowered to do. Anything less is a kind of spiritual poverty we bring upon ourselves. God has given us the gift of himself, present and available in every moment, every place, and every situation. May we recognize this most wonderful gift and give thanks with grateful hearts. Liturgical Publications
