ST. ANNE PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Anne Parish, Southborough, in the Diocese of Worcester are called through Baptism to become one faith family. We commit ourselves to embody the presence of Christ in Word and Sacrament; by using our ministries to welcome all who are seeking Jesus and to share in the life and work of our Catholic faith. In the spirit and truth of the Holy Trinity, we will use our time, talents and treasure to answer God's command to love one another as He has loved us, in holy worship, prayer, Catechetical formation for all, evangelization and service to others.

 Jesus and the Apostles ~ 1938*

*Jesus departed from there and came to his native place,
 accompanied by his disciples.
 The Gospel, Mk 6:1*

There comes a time in each of our lives when we realize that "we can't go home again." We may return to the place, but the home of our childhood is no longer there. It is changed by time and will never be the same again. There also comes a time in our lives when we must make the decision to give ourselves back to God. When we pledge our lives to follow Jesus, we become his disciples. We can never return to be who we once were. We will have become new creatures who walk in newness of life.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, ‘Son of man, I am sending you...’” (EZEKIEL 2:2-3)

God asks each of us to do some special work for Him. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. However, do we listen to God when He calls? Do we get up on our feet and use our talent to do the work He asks of us? Remember, God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called.

This week's readings:

Ezekiel 2:2-5 - The Lord speaks to Ezekiel
2 Corinthians 12:7-10 - Paul's weakness
Mark 6:1-6 - Jesus at Nazareth

A Thorn in His Side

The Old Testament, Epistle, and Gospel readings today all give reminders of the hardships endured by God's prophets. We'll focus on the second reading from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians.

Immediately before this passage, Paul has been writing to the church community in Corinth about all that he has endured for the sake of spreading the Good News. Five times he was whipped, three times he was beaten with rods, and once he was stoned. He was shipwrecked three times, survived a day and night on the sea, and in his travels endured "many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst and frequent fasting's, in cold and nakedness" (2 Cor 11:24-28).

Now he has another challenge: "a thorn in the flesh." He never tells us what the thorn in the flesh is. Is it a physical sickness or handicap? Could it refer to a person, someone he finds almost intolerable? We will never know, but we can probably relate to a challenging or painful situation that we wish we didn't have to experience.

St. Paul begged for his thorn to be removed, but the response he heard from the Lord was "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." Like so many of Jesus' sayings in the Gospels, this response is a surprise and it challenges our understanding of how God works. Paul manages to accept this and make a shift to humility, accepting his thorn, so that God can work with and through him, despite his imperfections. Ultimately he allows God to be in control, rather than himself.
