Luke 5: 1-11

"Putting out into deep water" is an act of faith. It may not seem like the thing to do. We may be too tired or too busy to do what we are called to do. But Peter did it anyway and the result was enough to bring him to his knees before the all-powerful Jesus. By this Gospel today, Jesus calls us to put out into the deep waters of our faith. It is only by moving in that direction that we can truly come to trust and know this Jesus who is already aboard. By our own action we lower the nets for a catch. At the end of our life's voyage, when we pull our nets in, we will discover that our amazing catch is the gift of life everlasting.

WE WELCOME AND INTRODUCE THREE ADDITIONAL NEW PARISH COUNCIL MEMBERS TO THE
SAINT ANNE CHURCH PARISH COUNCIL

STEPHEN SCARINGI

Stephen has been attending St. Anne church with his family since they moved to Southborough in 2004. Following the RCIA program, he became a Christian and a Catholic at St. Anne in 2016. Married for over 26 years, Stephen and Deb are parents to three children: Nathan, Sophia and Nicolas. Nathan and Sophia were confirmed at St. Anne, and Nicolas was baptized here. Stephen grew up in Norton, Massachusetts. Stephen holds a B.A. in English from Muhlenberg College and an M.S. in Software Engineering from Brandeis University. He has been working at MathWorks, Inc. for over 12 years, where he manages a software engineering group with teams in Natick, Massachusetts and Hyderabad, India. He has also led and supported environmental groups, advocating for environmental protections and open space preservation. Stephen continues to find ways to grow his faith in God, his understanding of the Catholic church, its traditions, and ways to support to the St. Anne community.

ANNETTE PARENT

Annette and Douglas have been married for 25 years. They have three children Desiree, Michaila, and Devin, all of whom were homeschooled. Annette was the primary educator of their three children, teaching all subjects, including religion. She also taught various levels of CCD at several local parishes. She has coached a variety of sports and currently runs her own business, Train to Play for Life, primarily training young field hockey athletes. She has also been a tutor for younger students and health advocate for adults and seniors. Her primary focus is helping people feel better through nutrition, coaching, and prayer. Annette graduated from Bentley University with a B.S. in Marketing, and A.S. in Accounting. She is in the Bentley University Hall of Fame and holds two National Records in Field Hockey. In her business career, she worked as a Consultant for John Hancock Life Insurance Company and most recently she worked as a Charity Consultant for a Catholic Philanthropist, CEO, and owner of small company. She was responsible for the distribution of funds to charity recipients and worked closely with other departments and other agencies outside the company in evangelizing the Catholic faith.

MARYBETH PHILBIN-HANNIGAN

MaryBeth was raised in Leominster, MA where she was a member of St. Cecilia's Parish. She and her husband Jeffrey were married in 1999. At St. Cecilia's MaryBeth was a lead teacher in their CCD program teaching 2nd grade. When her son Michael was entering sophomore year of high school in 2006, she and Jeff moved their young family to Southborough. When their children, Brendan and Bridget, entered grade school, she became a volunteer teaching assistant in St. Anne's religious education program where she continues to team teach our grade 9 and 10 confirmation candidates. She and her children are active in the Our Father's Table ministry and always look forward to cooking monthly with several of our parish families.

MaryBeth was called to work with children at a young age, spending summers as a playground counselor, and during and after college, coaching basketball and softball at St. Bernard's Central Catholic High School, her alma mater. In addition to being a devoted mom, she is fortunate to have countless children in her daily life. MaryBeth has taught both elementary and high school ESL along with grade 8 English, but has spent the majority of her career as an Auburn High English teacher. It is her great joy and blessing to work with young adults as they learn to navigate the sometimes tumultuous waters of adolescence and young adulthood. Their family spends the summer months in Maine where they attend Holy Spirit Parish.
