Gospel Reading -John 8:1-11
"The Freed Sinner"

In a world of quick media judgment it is easy to condemn first and ask questions later. Jesus' brilliant response, asking those without sin to cast the first stone, leaps from the Gospel pages into our own lives. During Lent we focus on our need to be without sin and to seek reconciliation for those sins we have committed. We are incredibly blessed that God loves us and says also to us: "Nor do I condemn you."

~The Pastoral Center

Lord, help me to see the recent abrupt change in my circumstances as an invitation to go deeper with you.

Today's suggested penance:
Do something loving for someone who is sick.
