XXVI Sunday in Ordinary Time (September 29, 2019)

*“My child,
remember that you
received what was
good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise
received what was
bad; but now he is
comforted here,
whereas you are
tormented.
Moreover, between us and you a great
chasm is established...”
(Luke 16:25-26)*

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

The Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel September 29

"Then war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels battled against the dragon. The dragon and its angels fought back, but they did not prevail and there was no longer any place for them in heaven." Rev 12:7-8.

"It was St. Michael who long ago led the battle against Satan... The name Michael means 'who is like God.' St. Michael's will is focused, immovable, and entirely driven toward accomplishing goodness: he is a protector of souls, and wields his unrelenting sword of righteous justice against the poisonous and vindictive aspirations of the one who is known as a liar from the beginning."
