My beloved Parish Family,

As we approach Pentecost we are reminded that if you want to let the Holy Spirit lead your life and walk by the Spirit, it's a conscious choice you need to make each and every day. Pray that the Lord will fill you with His Spirit. Pray that you would walk by the Spirit. Then throughout your day, watch and listen for opportunities to obey the Spirit's promptings.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful. And kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you will renew the face of the earth.

Lord, by the light of the Holy Spirit you have taught the hearts of your faithful. In the same Spirit help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please know that you are each being lifted up in prayer daily and in our Masses. We are also trying to respond to your calls as appropriate. Please feel free to call us directly or on our office phones.

Thank you for your generous prayers for each of us as well as your donations to help sustain our parish and our ministries. We love you and miss you. Fr. Hilario and Staff

Prayers of the Faithful

Dear friends, today we bring to a close this joyous fifty-day season that follows Easter Sunday. We praise God, who having raised Jesus from the dead, now sends the Holy Spirit to enliven our hearts and remain with us forever. WE seek to make the Spirit manifest in today's world through our energy and creativity, our attitudes and actions.

The Mass today is offered for:

Saturday † Dan Steffek; † Judy Pekar; † Charlie & Blanche Pajestka; † Albin, Agnes & Robert Bohac;
† Joe W. Pustejovsky

Sunday Living and deceased members of SSCM Parish0

Emboldened by the Spirit, we cry out to God with our needs and the needs of the may around the world, and ask God to hear us and renew the face of the earth.

- That Church leaders, filled with the Holy Spirit, may bring justice to the oppressed, food to the hungry, plenty to the poor and compassion to the suffering, we pray to the Lord
- For elected officials, that they may act in accordance with God's will in their commitment to justice and mercy, we pray to the Lord
- That we may continue to break down walls between members of the human race, particularly divisions of race, ethnicity, language or heritage, we pray to the Lord
- For all of us, that we may use the spiritual gifts we have been given by the Holy Spirit for the benefit of all and for all those awaiting to be confirmed in the future, we pray to the Lord
- For our homebound and all who are not able to join us today, we pray to the Lord
- For the prayers offered in the prayer book and those we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray to the Lord.

Glorious God, you sent the Holy Spirit to sanctify us, your holy Church, your faithful people. May the gifts of the Holy Spirit enable us to fulfill the mission you call on us to complete. Grant this and all our prayers through your Son, our Risen Lord, Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Pentecost Sunday With this great celebration of Pentecost, we conclude our 50 days of Easter jubilee. Now, filled with the Spirit, we must live and proclaim what we have celebrated. We are called to witness to the power of Christ to transform hearts and minds and our whole world. The presence of the Holy Spirit is manifested when there is unity, reconciliation, zeal and peace. In the Gospel on Sunday, Jesus tells the disciples that they are sent now as he was sent. It is our mission now. The Spirit has been given – let's act!
