My beloved Parish Family,

Filled with the Holy Spirit through Pentecost, guided by the Holy Trinity and now fed with the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ we are able to build the Kingdom here on earth as we face the daily struggles of this time of emotional turmoil.

We have been given the Gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. With these Gifts, the Catechism adds: "By this power of the Spirit, God's children can bear much fruit. He who has grafted us onto the true vine will make us bear 'the fruit of the Spirit: ... love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control'" (Gal 5:22-23; CCC 736).

I continue to hold each of you in prayer daily and at Mass. Do not hesitate to call if you need assistance or an appointment for counseling or reconciliation.

Fr. Hilario

The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ This Sunday we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ, which gives us life! In the Eucharist we share that taste of heaven; that glorious banquet of the kingdom, which is Christ's promise to us. But this share of heaven calls us to a way of being that reflects heaven – a life of generous self-sacrificing love. During this opening week of the Fortnight of Freedom, the Freedom to serve, how will we express the love of Christ that has been given so generously to us?

Prayers of the Faithful

Dear friends, before he gave his body and blood on the cross for the salvation of the whole world, Jesus gave his body and blood to his disciples in the form of bread and wine, instructing them to continue this practice in memory of him. Like the Lord providing water and manna in the desert, Jesus provides food and drink to sustain us, taking it one step further by transforming it to his own Body and Blood. As we receive the Eucharist today let us realize the sustenance we are given. May the Eucharist we share today strengthen and enliven us as we bring Jesus with us to the world.

The Mass today is offered for:

Saturday † Cyril & Frances Polasek; † Bernice & Anton Huf; † W.E. Crenwelge; † Charlie Sulak;
Wellbeing of Mildred Michalik & Martha Cervenka

Sunday the living and deceased members of SS Cyril and Methodius Parish Family

Gathered around the table of the Lord, we call to mind our needs and the needs of the world.

- For the Church, the body of Christ, that the loaf of bread and cup of blessing we share may nourish and strengthen Christians around the world as we proclaim the Good News, we pray to the Lord
- That world leaders have the will to ensure that all their people, especially the very young and the very old, have enough to eat and drink, so that no one suffers from chronic hunger and thirst, we pray to the Lord
- For healing of our troubled world, for the end to racism and discrimination and violence, we pray to the Lord
- For those who continue to battle against COVID 19, may the Holy Spirit grant strength and wisdom in the search for a cure, and may those who are ill be restored to health, we pray to the Lord
- For those who have lost their battle with COVID 19 and for all the faithful departed, may God in His mercy, welcome them into His heavenly home, we pray to the Lord
- For our homebound and all who are not able to join us today, we pray to the Lord
- For the prayers offered in the prayer book and those we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray to the Lord.

Generous God, you provided our ancestors manna in the desert and water from the rock. Instill in us generous hearts so that we can share our bounty with those in need. Grant this and all our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

open wide our hearts

Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people, sisters and brothers to each other. We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another. We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society. We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person. Mother of the Church, the Spirit of your Son Jesus warms our hearts: pray for us. Amen. www.usccb.org/racism
