Sts. Cyril and Methodius parishioners, we have been short on help in our ministry of ushers. If you have been a past usher or someone who would like to and are comfortable to assist in this ministry please come forward. This is often an overlooked and underappreciated ministry and is one that can be filled by both men and women, both young and older even a family ministry. Please just show up about 30 minutes prior to the Saturday and/or Sunday Masses. Your participation will be greatly appreciated. The first impression we give at the door of the Church can be a lasting one.

Dear friends, at the end of the liturgical year the readings focus upon the end times and the last judgment. This year, those themes begin today. We are reminded that we cannot know either the day or the hour. Therefore, we should always be prepared. Gathered together to celebrate the Eucharist today, let us consider our readiness for the Lord’s coming at the end of time.

Trusting in the Lord to hear our prayers, we bring to mind our needs and the needs of the world.

- For the Church, that in order to prepare ourselves for the end times, we may hasten our work to build up the kingdom of God in our midst, we pray to the Lord
- For world leaders, that they may seek wisdom, resplendent and unfading to guide their decisions and policies, making their nations and the world more just, more virtuous and more peaceful, we pray to the Lord
- That we may take to heart the wisdom of scientists who study disease and the environment and prepare responsibly to keep life on our planet healthy and thriving, we pray to the Lord
- For the women and men elected this past week to public office, that God may watch over them as they assume their responsibilities, we pray to the Lord
- For the success of this year’s Catholic Services Appeal, we pray to the Lord
- For all those who have gone before us that we may remember them and find comfort in the generous and merciful God, we pray to the Lord
- For our homebound and all who are not able to join us today, we pray to the Lord
- For the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray to the Lord.

Almighty God, source of all wisdom, guide us on the right path. Listen to the prayers we make to you and grant them in your great mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
