Dear friends, on the Sea of Galilee, Simon and Andrew were fishing for fish when Jesus walked past, saying, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men,” changing their lives forever. We hear stories of calls in the readings today: Calls to follow, calls of conversion, calls to repentance, calls to discipleship. Let us take this opportunity today to listen closely and discern whether we can hear Jesus calling us to something more.

Relying on the Lord’s ever-present compassion and love, we make these prayers today trusting that they will be heard.

- For the Church, trusting in Jesus’ constant presence, that we may act to bring the reign of God to realization in the world, loving God and loving our neighbor as we love ourselves, we pray to the Lord
- For our nation, that we may repent for the wrongdoings we have done, whose repercussions continue to be felt, and the wrongs that we continue to do, and turn to the source of life and goodness, we pray to the Lord
- For all those who suffer from want, from lack of shelter, heat, adequate nutrition and health care, that they may find sustenance and hope in the generosity of those with plenty, we pray to the Lord
- For our parish community, that we may always be willing to look into our own hearts and repent and return to the Lord when we have strayed, we pray to the Lord
- For all who suffer the effects of COVID and an end to this pandemic, we pray to the Lord
- For each of us, may we strive to love others, regardless of our differences, that we might work to strengthen our unity and work to peacefully build up our nation through respectfully service of others, we pray to the Lord
- For our homebound and all who are not able to join us today, we pray to the Lord
- For the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray to the Lord.

Merciful God, we trust in the generosity of your great mercy as we acknowledge our need for it and seek your forgiveness. Listen to the prayers we make and grant them in the name of our Savior, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
