Dear friends, we come together each Sunday a needy people, a damaged people, a human people, each of us coming to realize that we cannot make it on our own. But we are a faith-filled people, trusting in the Lord our Savior, our Redeemer, whom we know is here with us as we gather together. Buoyed by that knowledge, we celebrate the Eucharist today with our sisters and brothers, giving thanks to God, receiving our Lord, and going forth to others renewed and rejuvenated in our mission as disciples.

Jesus' disciples brought him all who were sick and suffering and he healed them. As his disciples we bring our needs to the Lord and ask for God's healing.

- For the Church and its leaders, that they may be guided by the Holy Spirit to continue to proclaim the unique meaning of marriage between a man and a woman as a sign of Christ and His Bride the Church, we pray to the Lord
- For our country and its leaders during these trying times, we pray to the Lord
- For an increase in faith during this time of pandemic, that like the man with leprosy, we may come to Christ with our burdens and receive the consolation that only the Lord can give, we pray to the Lord
- For all married couples, that they may strive daily to faithfully and lovingly live out their marriage vows, bearing witness to the love God has for each of us, we pray to the Lord
- For beneficial weather and protection from violent storms, we pray to the Lord
- For our homebound and all who are not able to join us today, we pray to the Lord
- For the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray to the Lord.

Loving God you respond to our suffering with words of compassion, assurances of love and promise of eternal life with you. Hold us in your loving arms as you grant the prayers we make through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
