Dear friends, we gather together today, as we do each Sunday, as the body of Christ. Jesus called us to love God with all our heart, all our soul and all our mind, and all our strength and to love our neighbor as ourselves. This Valentine's Day, we commit ourselves to nurturing that love for God and love for our neighbor. We also commemorate our Patron Saints Cyril and Methodius on this day.

The leper challenged Jesus, saying, "If you wish, you can make me clean." "I do will it," Jesus responded, and so we have the courage today to ask the Lord for that healing touch for our infirmities, our anxieties, our needs.

- For the Church, that in imitation of Jesus we may break down barriers by including the outcast, the forgotten, the refugee, the ostracized and the sinner in stretching our love of neighbor to every corner of society, we pray to the Lord
- For our country that we may heal from the ills of division and find unity and love once again, we pray to the Lord
- For those who have diseases, especially COVID 19, that prevent them from fully participating in their communities, and for those who care for them, we pray to the Lord
- For married couples, that they may grow in God's love and be signs of Christ's selfless love for their families, their friends and each other, we pray to the Lord
- That our parish community may comfort and support those who suffer in relationships that have become strained or fractured, we pray to the Lord
- For our homebound and all who are not able to join us today, we pray to the Lord
- For the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray to the Lord.

Loving God, you exclude no one from your mercy and compassion. Touch us with healing and comfort as you grant the prayers we make through your Son and our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
