Dear friends, “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” We say this when we enter a church, when we begin Mass, when we pray. It is our identity. It reminds us that we are in the presence of God. It joins us to millions of other Christians across time and space. It expresses our belief in the Triune God. Three persons in one God enabled God to become incarnate, enabled God to come down upon us in baptism, and enables God to be with us here today and every day.

Prayers of the Faithful

Marked by the Holy Spirit as children of God, we call to our Father, Abba, with our needs and the needs of our sisters and brothers.

- For the Church, that we may proclaim the Good News in word and action, making disciples of all nations, we pray to the Lord
- For the leaders of our country, that they may lead this nation to embrace justice, kindness, and generosity for the benefit of all its people, we pray to the Lord
- That we may take action to heal our vulnerable environment, never taking for granted the wonders of God’s creation as we care for our common home, we pray to the Lord
- For those who died defending our country, that they and their families may find comfort in God’s loving arms and that the sacrifice they made will never be forgotten, we pray to the Lord
- For our homebound and all who are not able to join us today, we pray to the Lord
- For the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray to the Lord.

Triune God, your goodness and love sustain us through our hardships and bring joy to our lives. Look upon us and our needs with your goodness and love, through your Son and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

 In the coming months as restrictions are lifted we will need more help at weekend Masses. Please prayerfully consider one of these ministries. Return form to the Parish Office or place in the collection basket.
