

5th GRADE

Welcome 5th Graders!

How exciting to be entering a new school year! We are going to have so much fun learning and growing in 5th grade! This summer, in order to prepare for 5th grade, I have prepared a summer learning packet for you. Your first task is to read 3 books. This summer our required book is Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl. After reading our class book, your task is to choose two other books from the reading list. Reading can open your eyes to new perspectives and adventures.

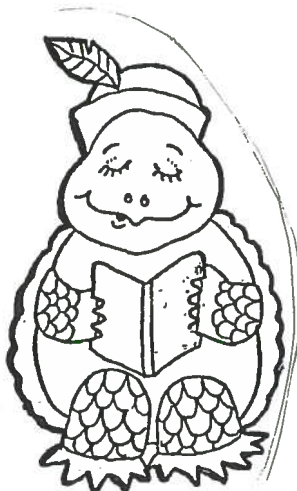

This summer, you will also have five writing prompts to respond to. Writing can give us a way to express ourselves and have our voices heard.

Have you ever learned a new math concept and wondered how it connects to your life? You will have the opportunity to practice your math skills as you train your brain for 5th grade math.

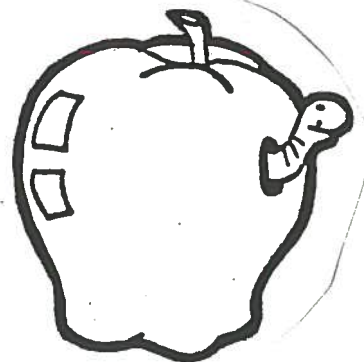

Fifth grade is an exciting year. We will be diving into many new topics as we spend the year together. This summer, please pray with a family member or friend for the success of our year. There is a prayer attached that we will be praying as a class. You can pray this prayer during the summer. I have also included some family friendly media for you to view and respond to during the summer. I am looking forward to working with you this year!

If you have any questions, my email is acarnevale@blessedschoolpvd.org.

God Bless You!
Miss Carnevale
