Pope Francis asks Catholics to pray for their priests in July

Pope Francis asked Catholics to dedicate the month of July to giving a spiritual gift to their pastors by praying for them, especially the priests who are tired or lonely.

“The tiredness of priests...Do you know how often I think about it?”

This is the opening line of Pope Francis' newest prayer video, published July 3 and dedicated to his intention for the month.

As the video flashes scenes of priests working in difficult situations, including war and disaster relief, Francis speaks in his native Spanish, saying, “priests, with their virtues and defects, work in many different areas.”“Working on so many active fronts, they cannot remain inactive after a disappointment,” the pope said. And when these moments come along, it is good for a pastor to remember “that the people love their priests, need them, and trust in them.”Pope Francis has often spoken of the need for consecrated persons to care for their vocation both spiritually and temporally, especially when he is meeting with priests and religious during international trips.

His specific concern for priests who feel weary on the job goes back to the beginning of his pontificate, and is an issue he has brought up on multiple occasions.

Dear pastors, please encourage your people to attend the annual Faith Formation Conference August 11th, and if they sign up please make sure they attend we had several people register last year that were no shows there is cost involved with supplies and lunches that have to be paid whether they attend or not once they are registered. For further information, see the attachment, thanks.

2. Stewardship: Stewardship opens an avenue of thought that allows us to give without always questioning what we will get in return.

Every one of us is talented in some way. Stewardship encourages us to use any talent have to benefit an individual, the church or the community.

“What should I return to the Lord has given to me” (Psalm 116:12)

Jesus asks us to demonstrate our love for him through our generosity to others. In our everyday lives, He calls us to share our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.

“While we have the opportunity, let us do good to all people but especially to those of household of the faith. (Galatians chapter 6 verse 10)

3. We need Musician to play at our church:

St. Patrick’s church has one of the pianists/organists in the diocese. Unfortunately we have no one to make use of it, or to play the music in our church. It is the humble request to all the young kids to make use of your talent, time and gifts to share with the Music ministry. If you are interested to play the music, please let us know how we can support you to learn from the teacher. You can contact fr. Joe or Monica Kidd 806-334-1825. Thanks
