CELEBRATION OF THE SUNDAY EUCHARIST
Saturday – 6.00 p.m. Sunday – 8.30 a.m.

We Catholics pray and offer Masses for the dead :

To help the Holy Souls in Purgatory:

1. Have Masses offered for them.
2. Pray the Rosary and the Chaplet for the Holy Souls.
3. Pray the Stations of the Cross.
4. Offer up little sacrifices and fast.
5. Spread devotion to them.
6. Attend Eucharistic Adoration and pray for them.
7. Gain all the indulgences you can, and apply them to the Holy Souls.

When I was teaching high school a parent of one of my students passed away after a tragic and long illness. Many of my students struggled with how to express their grief or condolences appropriately

I suggested to a few of my students that having A Mass offered for the dead is always a beautiful and appropriate way to express one's solidarity with the grieving. Most, if not all, looked at me as if I had something growing out of my head. It occurred to me that many really did not understand the value of offering a Mass for the dead. And I would guess that there are many people out there while they recognize the Mass as something important - do not fully understand why offering a Mass for someone, especially the dead, is so important, not only for those who grieve, but for the person who died. I'm sure, that the Mass, as well as our own personal prayers for the dead, is more beneficial and comforting than any other sympathy card or bouquet of flowers. Remember too, you can also request to have a Mass offered for your particular intention or for someone else.

Why should I have a Mass offered for the dead or for someone else?

The Catholic Church teaches that the effects of the Mass bring certain benefits or fruits. Generally the fruits of the Mass are bestowed upon the entire Church - to the living faithful and those souls in purgatory. That is why in the Eucharistic Prayer you might hear a special mention remembering both the living and "those who have died and have gone before us marked with the sign of faith." But the special ministerial fruits of the Mass are applied to the particular intention of the Mass, i.e. "for whom the Mass is offered." That is the reason why the priest or commentator might mention the name of the person "for whom the Mass is offered" or you might see a person's name recorded in the bulletin for a particular Mass. Most of the time, it's for a deceased person, but it could also be for a person living who might have a special intention (anniversary, thanksgiving, illness, etc.).
