Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (11-21-2018): The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (as it is known in the West), or The Entry of the Most Holy Theotokos into the Temple (its name in the East), is a liturgical feast celebrated on November 21 by the Catholic and Orthodox Churches. According to that text, Mary's parents, Joachim and Anne, who had been childless, received a heavenly message that they would have a child. In thanksgiving for the gift of their daughter, they brought her, when still a child, to the Temple in Jerusalem to consecrate her to God. Mary's presentation in the temple draws parallels to that of the prophet Samuel, whose mother Hannah, like Anne was also thought to be barren, and who offered her child as a gift to God at Shiloh. May Mary, Mother of the Church, accompany the pilgrim church with a mother's love and watch in kindness over her homeward steps, until the Lord's Day shall come in glorious splendor.

Solemnity of Christ the King (11-25-2018): The Feast of Christ the King was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as an antidote to secularism, a way of life which leaves God out of man's thinking and living and organizes his life as if God did not exist. The feast is intended to proclaim in a striking and effective manner Christ's royalty over individuals, families, society, governments, and nations. Today's Mass establishes the titles for Christ's royalty over men: 1) Christ is God, the Creator of the universe and hence wields a supreme power over all things; "All things were created by Him"; 2) Christ is our Redeemer, He purchased us by His precious Blood, and made us His property and possession; 3) Christ is Head of the Church, "holding in all things the primacy"; 4) God bestowed upon Christ the nations of the world as His special possession and dominion.

TRIGÉSIMO TERCER DOMINGO EN EL TIEMPO ORDINARIO Las lecturas de hoy hablan del fin del mundo y de la venida del Reino. La carta pastoral de los obispos sobre la administración dice claramente "que 'la vida que vendrá' es una continuación de la vida presente a través de los bienes humanos, los dignos objetivos humanos, que la gente fomenta ahora." ¡Que nuestra buena administración sea la causa de que seamos contados entre los elegidos en el último día!
