The Epiphany Of the Lord

Today we celebrate the solemnity of Epiphany and in a most special way the day of the three kings who brought Jesus very costly and symbolic gifts of gold, mire, and frankincense. The term Epiphany is of Greek origin, epiphaninen. It is a verb which means “to reveal,” or “to manifest.”

Epiphany celebrates the many ways through which Jesus has revealed himself to us and our world. These include the three events that bring to light his mission and divinity: the visitation of the three kings or Magi (Mt 2, 10-12), the baptism of Jesus (Mk 1, 9-11), and the miracle at Cana (Jn 2, 1-11).

So, today God reveals himself to us because he is good and loving.

The light that shines forth upon us today is the light of life from which we ourselves must get our own light and reflect it unto others. Today, Christ further demonstrates the extent of his love by allowing himself to illumine the darkness of our lives.

Another lesson that we must learn from the wise kings is that, we must continue to follow the star and light that Christ shows us. That is, we must not allow ourselves to be deceived or distracted on our journey by the many Herods of this world.

Trusting that God will not mislead us, we must continue to watch out for the star and light of Christ that will guide us to eternity. Any time we are confused, or come to the cross road of life, we must seek and wait until the star of Christ appears to show us the way we must follow. This is simply what we may refer to as divine guidance and counsel in our lives. Today, we must ask God as the church prays: Father, guide us with your light. Help us to recognize Christ in the Eucharist, and welcome him with love, for He is Lord forever and ever. Amen!

Homilía Para La Epifanía Del Señor

Oh Señor, Guíanos Con Tu Estrella Y Tu Luz

Hoy celebramos la solemnidad de la Epifanía, y de una manera muy especial el día de los tres reyes que trajeron a Jesús regalos muy costosos y simbólicos de oro, mirra, e incienso. El término Epifanía es de origen griego, epiphany. Es un verbo que significa "revelar" o "manifestar".

La Epifanía celebra las muchas maneras a través de las cuales Jesús se ha revelado a nosotros y a nuestro mundo. Estos incluyen los tres acontecimientos que traen a la luz su misión y divinidad: la visitación de los Reyes Magos (Mt 2, 10-12), el bautismo de Jesús (Mc 1, 9-11), y el milagro de la boda en Caná (Jn 2, 1-11).

Así que hoy, Dios se revela a nosotros porque es bueno y amoroso. La luz que brilla sobre nosotros hoy es la luz de la vida, de la cual nosotros mismos debemos obtener nuestra propia luz y para reflejarla a los demás. Hoy, Cristo demuestra la profundidad de su amor al permitiéndose iluminar la oscuridad de nuestras vidas.

Otra lección que debemos aprender de los Reyes Magos es que, debemos seguir la estrella y la luz de Cristo. Es decir, no debemos permitirnos ser engañados a lo largo de nuestro viaje por los Herodes de este mundo.

Confundiendo en que Dios no nos engañará, debemos seguir mirando y siguiendo la estrella y la luz de Cristo que nos guiará en nuestro camino hacia la eternidad. Cada vez que estamos confundidos o llegamos a los caminos cruzados de la vida, debemos buscar y esperar hasta que la estrella de Cristo nos muestra el camino que hay que seguir.

Esto es simplemente lo que podemos referir como guía y consejo divino en nuestras vidas. Hoy, oremos a Dios: Guíanos con tu luz. Ayúdanos a reconocerle a Cristo en la Eucaristía y adorarle con amor, porque Él es el Señor para siempre. Amén.
