February 11 marks her feast day

Of the fifteen apparitions of the Virgin Mary officially confirmed by the Holy See through the world, fully one-third have occurred in France. The history of Marian apparitions in France begins in 1208. Until her last appearance in 1871, Mary appeared in turn to a Spanish friar in the south of France, a teenage shepherdess in the French Alps, two cloistered nuns in Paris, two young cowherds in the Alps, a simple girl in the foothills of the Pyrenees and a group of villagers in the path of an advancing Prussian army.

The Apparition of the Rosary

Our Lady first appeared to religious founder Dominic Guzman in 1208 in the Church of Prouille, in Languedoc, France, considered the “cradle of the Dominicans

Legend has it that Saint Dominic received the Rosary there, which became the tool of the Dominicans in battling the Albigensian heresy, rife in that area.

1664: The Visions of a Teenage Shepherdess

Mary did not appear again until more than 450 years later, this time in the small Alpine village of Laus. It was in May of 1664, while tending her sheep and praying the Rosary, that the 17 year-old shepherdess Benôite Rencurel first beheld a lady in dazzling white, carrying a child. When she naively invited the Lady to share her hard bread, the Lady “smiled silently and disappeared into a cave.” For the next few months, the Lady appeared to Benôite each day. The Lady’s message was to “pray continuously for sinners.” She revealed her name as “Mary — Reconciler and Refuge of Sinners.

“In May of 2008, the Holy See announced its official recognition of the apparitions. The shrine at Laus is under the care of the Community of St. John, who are dedicated to the Sacrament of Confession

Homilía Del Quinto Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario

En el Evangelio de hoy, Cristo llamó a Pedro para seguirlo. ¿Cómo podría Pedro, un pescador experimentado que no podía pescar ningún pez durante toda la noche ser pescador de hombres? Los hombres, la más difícil de todas las especies creadas por Dios. Por supuesto, Cristo sabía que no era digno, pero él lo eligió y lo hizo digno de su misión.

Nuestra primera lección hoy es que, es la gracia de Dios la que sostiene a los que él llama. Por lo tanto, él santifica y justifica a aquellos a quienes llamó (Rom 8:30). Nuestra experiencia es importante, pero no es suficiente para la misión de Dios. Pero su gracia es suficiente para nosotros (2 Cor 12:9).

A veces nos sentimos como Isaías, Pablo o Pedro. Nos sentimos tan indignos de nuestra llamada que difícilmente podemos hacer nada. En verdad, debemos sentirnos así porque como ellos, somos humanos. Sin embargo, debemos darnos cuenta de que, es Dios quien llama, santifica y nos hace instrumentos dignos.

La segunda lección importante es que, siempre habría millones de razones y excusas para evitar la llamada y la voluntad de Dios. La semana pasada, Jeremías se quejó: “Señor, todavía soy demasiado joven para esto” (Jer 1:6). Hoy, Isaías lamentó: “Yo soy un hombre de labios impuros.”

Por lo tanto, siempre habría excusas, para no ayudar a los pobres, alimentar a los hambrientos, vestir a los desnudos, acoger a los desamparados, visitar a los enfermos e incluso enterrar a los muertos. Hay excusas para no hacer lo correcto: Estoy incapacitada, tengo muy poco que dar, no puedo hacer nada. Estoy muy ocupado y no tengo tiempo.

Lamentablemente, también hay muchas excusas aparentemente buenas para no asistir a misa u orar, por no ir a confesarse, y por no visitar el Santísimo Sacramento. Siempre habría excusas para no cuidar o atender a mi esposa, mi marido, mis hijos, mi familia y mis vecinos. ¡Demasiadas excusas! Sin embargo, ninguna excusa es suficiente para no hacer la voluntad de Dios o lo correcto en la vida.

Finalmente, todo lo que tenemos que hacer es: ¡Mate esa excusa! Sea dócil al Espíritu Santo porque, él hace que los que están disponibles sean dignos y capaces para la misión de Dios. Como Isaías, si sólo podemos decir: “Aquí estoy, señor envíame.” Entonces, Cristo nos hará “pescadores de los hombres”
