CELEBRATION OF THE SUNDAY EUCHARIST

Sunday – 8:30 a.m.

Liturgical feasts in this week

September 23: Padre Pio: Padre Pio's canonization Mass in 2002, Blessed John Paul II referred to that day's Gospel (Matthew 11:25-30) and said: "The Gospel image of 'yoke' evokes the many trials that the humble Capuchin of San Giovanni Rotondo endured. Today we contemplate in him how sweet is the 'yoke' of Christ and indeed how light the burden are whenever someone carries these with faithful love. The life and mission of padre Pio testify that difficulties and sorrows, if accepted with love, transform themselves into a privileged journey of holiness, which opens the person toward a greater good, known only to the Lord." "The life of a Christian is nothing but a perpetual struggle against self; there is no flowering of the soul to the beauty of its perfection, except at the price of pain." - Padre Pio.

September 27: St. Vincent de Paul
Quote: "Strive to live content in the midst of those things that cause your discontent. Free your mind from all that troubles you, God will take care of things. You will be unable to make haste in this [choice] without, so to speak, grieving the heart of God, Because he sees that you do not honor him sufficiently with holy trust. Trust in him, I beg you, and you will have fulfillment of what your heart desires." (St Vincent de Paul, Letters)

Sep 29, STS. MICHAEL, GABRIEL AND RAPHAEL, and ARCHANGELS (FEAST)

Prayer: St. Michael, St. Gabriel, and St. Raphael, please be with me today. Please hear and answer my prayers with your divine grace, intervention, and kindness, I love you all, please help me so that my prayer requests all come true quickly, Amen. [Mention your request here.....] Heavenly Father, you have given us archangels to assist us during our pilgrimage on earth. Saint Michael is our protector, I ask him to come to my aid, fight for all my loved ones, and protect us from danger. Saint Gabriel is a messenger for the Good News, I ask him to help me clearly hear your voice and to teach me the truth. Saint Raphael is the healing angel, I ask him to take my need for healing and that of everyone I know, lift it up to your throne of grace and deliver back to us the gift of recovery. Help us O Lord to realize more fully the reality of the archangels and their desire to serve us.

May the ARCHANGELS- Pray for Us. Amen.

SEAMOS FIELES AUN EN LAS COSAS PEQUENAS En la parábola del administrador hábil, Jesús nos hace ver que las personas que pertenecen a este mundo “ son mas hábiles para sus negocios que los que pertenecen a la luz”. Esto no es, de ninguna manera, una alabanza hacia quienes saben hacer negocios en este mundo. Es una llamada de atención para que, quienes creemos en Dios, nos volvamos hábiles para los negocios que de versa valen la pena los negocios de Dios. El Señor nos invita a utilizar el dinero para hacer el bien y a evitar que nos esclavice. Somos administradores de los bienes que Dios nos ha confiado, y un día tendremos que rendirle cuentas acerca de eso. “...no pueden ustedes servir a Dios y al dinero”.

1st Native-born US martyr to have shrine in Oklahoma

Blessed Stanley Rother, the first native-born US martyr, will be honored with a shrine in his native Oklahoma. Groundbreaking for the Oklahoma City facility will be November 3.

“The groundbreaking for the shrine will be a significant moment in the life of the Church in Oklahoma and for the broader community,” said Archbishop Paul Coakley of Oklahoma City. “The shrine is being built to honor Blessed Stanley Rother, an Oklahoma original and the first U.S.-born priest and martyr ever beatified. It will be a place of pilgrimage where the faithful will come from near and far to honor Blessed Stanley at his final resting place and to seek his intercession for their many needs. It will be a place of welcome, serving all people. Described as an “ordinary” priest, Stanley Rother was officially recognized in 2017 as the first martyr of the Catholic Church born in the United States. His beatification drew a crowd of 15,000 in Oklahoma City. and now many will be celebrating his feast day on July 28 each year. According to Maria Ruiz Scaperlanda, his biographer, “He was a farmer from Okarche, Oklahoma, who served the Church as a devoted priest both here and in the Oklahoma mission in Santiago Atitlán — where he literally farmed the Guatemalan fields side by side with his parishioners.” His name was eventually put on a “death list” in Guatemala for his missionary activities, and he was gunned down by militants at the age of 46. The shrine will include a 2,000-seat church, a chapel where Blessed Stanley will be buried, an education building, an event space and several areas designated for shrines and devotion. The site will be developed over time.

- Along with the Spanish colonial-style church – which will be the largest Catholic Church in Oklahoma – an additional element will be a museum and pilgrim center. The center will welcome thousands of visitors each year to an experience that leads them through the life, witness, and martyrdom of Blessed Stanley. The church will host many large diocesan events and will help accommodate the growing Hispanic population, which has left various area parishes significantly overcrowded.
