CELEBRATION OF THE SUNDAY EUCHARIST
Sunday – 8:30a.m.

The Month of October is the Month of Rosary: The word “Rosary” is not in the Bible: Correct, the word “Rosary” is not in the Bible, but neither is the word “Bible” in the Bible. The main prayers of the Rosary are the “Our Father” and “Hail Mary” and the “Glory Be”. The “Our Father” is taken straight from the lips of Our Lord Himself when he was asked, “How should we pray”. (Matthew 6:9-13) The “Hail Mary” is taken from Luke 1: 28 and Luke 1:42. If anyone has problems with saying the “Hail Mary”, they have problems with the Archangel Gabriel, St. Elizabeth AND the Holy Spirit, who moved Elizabeth to say what she did. The “Glory Be” is just a repetition of the words Our Lord used to baptize people and as all Christians know, baptism is necessary for salvation. (Mark 16:16, John 3:5, Acts 16:30, 1 Peter 3:21) Blessings of the Rosary: 1. Sinners are forgiven. 2. Souls that thirst are refreshed. 3. Those who are fettered have their bonds broken. 4. Those who weep find happiness 5. Those who are tempted find peace. 6. The poor find help. 7. Religious are reformed. 8. Those who are ignorant are instructed. 9. The living learn to overcome pride. 10. The dead (the Holy Souls) have their pains eased by suffrages.

Why do Catholics elevate Mary to a goddess? Catholics don't believe that Mary is a goddess. She has no power of her own. She acknowledges in Luke 1:47 that God is her Savior. However, Catholics do believe Mary when she said in Luke 1:46 that her “soul magnifies the Lord.” Mary's soul is still very much alive, and is still magnifying the Lord, which is a very good and holy thing. Mary was chosen by God the Father to be the living tabernacle, the Holy of Holies, to contain the Word Made Flesh, Jesus. Jesus himself was obedient to her (Luke 2:51). If it's good enough for Jesus to be obedient to Mary, then it's good enough for his servants also. No servant is greater than his Master (John 13:16). Jesus said that you shall know a tree by its fruit, (Luke 6:44) and Jesus is the fruit of Mary's womb (Luke 1:42), which means that Mary, while not divine, was certainly created and remained pure and holy, because a rotten tree cannot bear good fruit. Isn't saying the Hail Mary prayer worshipping Mary? The definition of the verb "to pray" means "to ask," not "to worship". People who say the Hail Mary do not worship Mary, any more than Gabriel did when he told Mary – “Hail full of grace” (Luke 1:28), and Elizabeth did when she said “Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus”, (Luke 1:42).

VIGÉSIMO SÉPTIMO DOMINGO EN EL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
 ¿Cuándo habré dado suficiente — de mi salario, de mi tiempo, de mi talento? El Evangelio de hoy sugiere que solamente una dedicación total a la administración de los bienes de Dios será suficiente: “Cuando hayan hecho todo lo que les ha, digan ‘Somos servidores que no hacíamos falta, hemos hecho lo que era nuestro deber’.”

LA FE ES UN DON DE DIOS En el evangelio de esta día, escuchamos que los apóstoles le dieron a Jesús: “Auméntanos la fe”. Cuando fuimos bautizados, nuestros papas y padrinos recibieron, en representación nuestra, una vela encendida, que simbolizaba el don de la fe que Dios nos concedía. Esonos recuerda que tenemos una misión: comunicar la fe en Jesucristo a los demás, de palabra y de obra. Nadie está exento de eso. Pidámosle a Jesús que nos aumente la fe.

1st Native-born US martyr to have shrine in Oklahoma

Blessed Stanley Rother, the first native-born US martyr, will be honored with a shrine in his native Oklahoma. Groundbreaking for the Oklahoma City facility will be November 3.

“The groundbreaking for the shrine will be a significant moment in the life of the Church in Oklahoma and for the broader community,” said Archbishop Paul Coakley of Oklahoma City. “The shrine is being built to honor Blessed Stanley Rother, an Oklahoma original and the first U.S.-born priest and martyr ever beatified. It will be a place of pilgrimage where the faithful will come from near and far to honor Blessed Stanley at his final resting place and to seek his intercession for their many needs. It will be a place of welcome, serving all people. Described as an “ordinary” priest, Stanley Rother was officially recognized in 2017 as the first martyr of the Catholic Church born in the United States. His beatification drew a crowd of 15,000 in Oklahoma City, and now many will be celebrating his feast day on July 28 each year. According to Maria Ruiz Scaperlanda, his biographer, “He was a farmer from Okarche, Oklahoma, who served the Church as a devoted priest both here and in the Oklahoma mission in Santiago Atitlán — where he literally farmed the Guatemalan fields side by side with his parishioners.” His name was eventually put on a “death list” in Guatemala for his missionary activities, and he was gunned down by militants at the age of 46. The shrine will include a 2,000-seat church, a chapel where Blessed Stanley will be buried, an education building, an event space and several areas designated for shrines and devotion. The site will be developed over time.

- Along with the Spanish colonial-style church – which will be the largest Catholic Church in Oklahoma – an additional element will be a museum and pilgrim center. The center will welcome thousands of visitors each year to an experience that leads them through the life, witness, and martyrdom of Blessed Stanley. The church will host many large diocesan events and will help accommodate the growing Hispanic population, which has left various area parishes significantly overcrowded.
