November 2, All Souls Day: You and I often speak of our “loss” when a loved one dies. It is true that we do lose their physical presence in our lives. We are no longer able to hold them or hug them. But are they really lost? Our faith assures us that death cannot overcome love. The bonds of love which unite us endure and we are joined with our loved ones in the Communion of Saints. Our loved ones are not lost – they are with God who is love. It is good for us to recall with gratitude our loved ones with whom we have shared our life and history. Yes, we may still experience the sadness of their loss, even after many years. But we should also recall the joy we had in their presence and the roles they played in our lives. During the month of November we recall with love the lives of our deceased family members. On all Souls Day and in the Month of November we pray and offer all the Masses for our departed loved ones. Kindly Offer masses for our deceased family members and place them on the altar or put it in the offertory baskets.

As we honor and pray for our deceased loved ones, let us honor their memory by remembering the needs of the poor and less fortunate with any gift you can offer in faith. Prayer for the dead is one of the greatest acts of charity we can perform, to help them during their time in Purgatory, so that they can enter more quickly into the fullness of heaven.

Month of Remembrance: It is during November that the Church meditates on the Communion of Saints, which is the charitable link with the faithful who have already reached heaven, the faithful departed who are still expiating their sins in Purgatory, and of the pilgrim faithful here on earth. On November 1st the Church celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints, a Holy Day, honoring all those faithful in heaven. Throughout November the Church also remembers our faithful Departed. In the Month of November, kindly pray the following prayer: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

The Month of November: By tradition, the Catholic Church dedicates each month of the year to certain devotion. In November, it is the Holy Souls in Purgatory, those faithful Christians who have died and gone before us but who still must atone for their sins. The time they spend in Purgatory cleanses them so that they may enter Heaven free from all effects of sin. Praying for the dead, especially for those we have known, is a requirement of Christian charity. Our own prayers and sacrifices can be offered up to relieve their suffering. The following prayer can be incorporated into our daily prayers during this Month. “Eternal rest grants unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Month of Remembrance: It is during November that the Church meditates on the Communion of Saints, which is the charitable link with the faithful who have already reached heaven, the faithful departed who are still expiating their sins in Purgatory, and of the pilgrim faithful here on earth.

On November 1st the Church celebrates the Solemnity of a All Saints, a HolyDay, honoring all those faithful in heaven. Throughout November the Church also remembers our faithful Departed. The need and duty of prayer for the departed souls has been acknowledged by the Church at all times. It is recommended in the Scriptures of the Old Testament: “it is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins” (2Mc 12:46). This duty has found expression not only in public and private prayers but especially in the offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the repose of souls.

Book of Remembrance: November is traditionally a time for praying, remembering and lighting a candle for the souls of all of our dear departed family members, parishioners, friends and those who have nobody to pray for them. We give thanks for them and recall how each one brought a touch of God’s light into the world. We remember their loving deeds and rejoice in their faithfulness, let us renew our desire to live lives that reflect God’s love. During the Month of November, our church remembers our deceased loved ones. You record in this book the names of your loved ones and friends, who have passed away, in our book of Remembrance.
