CELEBRATION OF THE SUNDAY EUCHARIST
Sunday – 9:00a.m.

The Solemnity of the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ into Heaven: is the completion of the Paschal Mystery. He shows us that where he has gone, we hope to follow. His physical presence in eternity shows us that the new heavens and the new earth will be a physical reality where "He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness." (Revelation 21: 4)

For the past seven weeks we have been celebrating the most joyous season of the Catholic liturgical year. The Easter season has filled us with immense joy and profound hope. The Lord has truly risen. Today, we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord into heaven. The risen and glorified Jesus physically returns to the Father. We await with joyful expectation his return in glory. Where he has gone, we hope to follow. This is our ultimate goal: get to heaven..

What is heaven? Heaven has been defined for us in the Catechism of the Catholic Church with these words: "Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live for ever with Christ. They are like God for ever, for they see him as he is, face to face

There is a heaven and we need to get there. There is a hell, and we need to do everything that we can to avoid the possibility of losing our immortal soul. Our number one priority is to get to heaven. It is necessary to go to Confession on a regular basis. Confession makes perfect sense when we accept ourselves as we are. Only the humble live in the truth, and only the humble understand the need that they have for God in their lives.

The acceptance of our own sinfulness also allows us to understand that salvation is not a guaranteed reality. We can end up in hell.

We have to struggle every day to be faithful, and we need to use the means that the Church gives us in order to persevere in the life of grace. Meditate on the Scriptures. Go to Mass every day. Pray the Rosary. Spend time in Adoration. Go to Confession whenever necessary and on a regular basis.

An Act of Spiritual Communion My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Holy Eucharist. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Creo, Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el cielo y en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar. Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no puedo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón. Y como si ya le hubiera recibido, le abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti. Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte de Ti. Amén.
