Month of the Seven Sorrows of Mary

September is traditionally dedicated to the Seven Sorrows (or Dolours) of Mary, and the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows falls in September. The Sorrows are: the prophecy of Simeon, the flight into Egypt, the loss of the Holy Child at Jerusalem for three days, meeting Jesus on his way to Calvary, standing at the foot of the Cross, Jesus being taken from the Cross, and the burial of Christ. The graces promised by Jesus, to those who are devoted to the dolours of Mary, are very Great. Pelbert relates that it was revealed to Saint Elizabeth, that after the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin into Heaven, Saint John the Evangelist, desired to see her again. The favor was granted him; his dear Mother appeared to him, and with her, Jesus Christ also appeared; the Saint then heard Mary ask her Son to grant some special grace to all those who are devoted to her dolours. Jesus promised her four principal ones:

First, that those, who before death, invoke the Divine Mother, in the name of her sorrows, should obtain true repentance of all their sins. Second, that He would protect all, who have this devotion in their tribulations, and that He would protect them, especially at the hour of death. Third, that He would impress upon their minds, the remembrance of His Passion, and that they should have their reward for it in Heaven. Fourth, that He would commit such devout clients, to the hands of Mary, with the power to dispose of them, in whatever manner she might please, and to obtain for them all the graces she might desire." St. John Paul II said "Turn your eyes incessantly to the Blessed Virgin; she, who is the Mother of Sorrows and also the Mother of Consolation, can understand you completely and help you. Looking to her, praying to her, you will obtain that your tedium will become serenity, your anguish change into hope, and your grief into love. I accompany you with my blessing, which I willingly extend to all those who assist you."

Reflections: In today’s second reading, St. Paul exhorts the Romans to total stewardship. Brothers and sisters, he urges, “. . . offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.”

REFLEXIÓN En la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pablo exhorta a los Romanos a la administración total de los bienes de Dios. Hermanos y hermanas, Él los incita a “. . . que le ofrezcan su propia persona como un sacrificio vivo y santo capaz de agradecerle a Dios.”

➤ An Act of Spiritual Communion My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Holy Eucharist. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
