Celebrating Our Mother's Great Birthday

A beautiful day, September 8, the birthday of our Mother, a great day to celebrate! The Sacred Scriptures do not refer to the birth of Mary. But the "Proto Evangelium of St. James" describes Mary's parents as wealthy Joachim and Anne. They were deeply grieved by their childlessness till Mary was born to them miraculously in their old age!

This feast has originated in the sixth century, after the Council of Ephesus. The church of Angers in France claims that St. Maurilius instituted this feast at Angers in 430. On the night of 8 September, a man heard the angels singing in heaven, and on asking the reason, they told him they were rejoicing because the Virgin was born on that night. The primary theme of this feast is that the world had been in the darkness of sin and with the arrival of Mary begins a glimmer of light. That light which appears at Mary's holy birth preannounces the arrival of Christ, the Light of the World. Thus her birth is the beginning of a new world. In Islam, Mary is known as "Maryam, mother of Isa" and Jesus as 'Isā ibn Maryām'.

Her status is as the only woman not touched by Satan. The Pre-Renaissance Mary is represented as a queen: ennobled, enthroned, surrounded by angels and engulfed in celestial light. Yet she was deep in her sublime humility, devotion, faithfulness and purity. We can celebrate her birthday by imitating her and encouraging our people to do the same. Let us celebrate her birthday solemnly with her own devotion. We can also encourage our people to celebrate it in their families by praying the rosary, the litany and learning and singing a new Marian song.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.

To you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer me. Amen
